women's empowerment and the overall commitment to just and democratic societies for development,

1. Reaffirms the outcome document of the United Nations Conference on Sustainable Development, entitled "The future we want",<sup>6</sup> and urges its speedy implementation;

2. Also reaffirms its resolution 68/309, in which it welcomed the report of the Open Working Group on Sustainable Development Goals<sup>20</sup> and decided that the report of the Open Working Group should be the main basis for integrating sustainable development goals into the post-2015 development agenda;

3. Takes note of the report of the Intergovernmental Committee of Experts on Sustainable Development Financing,<sup>21</sup> which will contribute to the financing for development process as well as to the post-2015 development agenda;

4. Also takes note of the report of the Secretary-General;<sup>22</sup>

5. Recalls the convening of the third International Conference on Small Island Developing States in Apia, from 1 to 4 September 2014, welcomes the adoption of the outcome document of the Conference, the Small Island Developing States Accelerated Modalities of Action (Samoa Pathway),<sup>18</sup> which represents the renewed political commitment of the international community to the sustainable development of small island developing States and in which the Heads of State and Government and high-level representatives reaffirm that small island developing States remain a special case for sustainable development in view of their unique and particular vulnerabilities, calls for the full implementation of the Samoa Pathway, and highlights the need to give due consideration to the challenges and priorities of small island developing States in the post-2015 development agenda;

6. Also recalls the commitment made at the United Nations Conference on Sustainable Development to strengthen the Economic and Social Council within its mandate under the Charter of the United Nations as a principal organ in the integrated and coordinated follow-up of the outcomes of all major United Nations conferences and summits in the economic, social, environmental and related fields, and recognizes its key role in achieving a balanced integration of the three dimensions of sustainable development;

7. Reaffirms its resolution 67/290 on the format and organizational aspects of the high-level political forum on sustainable development, and welcomes the inaugural meeting of the forum, held under the auspices of the General Assembly on 24 September 2013, as well as the meeting of the forum held under the auspices of the Economic and Social Council from 30 June to 9 July 2014;

8. Takes note of the report on the meeting of the high-level political forum on sustainable development held under the auspices of the Economic and Social Council, invites the forum, at its 2015 meeting to be held under the auspices of the Council, to discuss and consider its role in the follow-up of the post-2015 development agenda, including its methods of work in this regard, and requests the Secretary-General to prepare a report to the forum on this topic, taking into account the views of Member States, major groups and other stakeholders;

9. Requests the President of the General Assembly at its sixty-ninth session to initiate consultations with Member States with a view to holding the high-level political forum on sustainable development during the seventieth session of the General Assembly, in 2015, in relation to the implementation of the post-2015 development agenda, in accordance with established rules of procedure, and in this regard decides that a subsequent meeting of the forum under the auspices of the Assembly shall be held in 2019 at the beginning of the session of the Assembly, for a period of two days, without prejudice to holding such a meeting on other occasions, on an exceptional basis, upon a decision by the Assembly;

10. Requests the President of the General Assembly and the President of the Economic and Social Council to continue to coordinate with the bureaux of the relevant committees of the Assembly and with the Bureau of the Council to organize the activities of the high-level political forum on sustainable development so as to benefit from the inputs and advice of the United Nations system, the major groups and other relevant stakeholders, as appropriate, and encourages broad consultations on the organization of the meeting of the forum under the auspices of the Council in 2015;

11. Takes note of the summary prepared by the President of the General Assembly at its sixty-eighth session of the discussions and recommendations that emerged from the four one-day structured dialogues on possible arrangements for a facilitation mechanism to promote the development, transfer and dissemination of clean and environmentally sound technologies, and in this regard requests the Secretary-General to prepare a prototype for the technology facilitation mechanism before the end of March 2015, on the basis of the four options for possible arrangements, as presented in the summary of the structured dialogues, for consideration during the intergovernmental negotiations on the elaboration of the post-2015 development agenda, with the aim of establishing the mechanism;

12. Recalls paragraph 5 of its resolution 67/203, including its decision to review the arrangement to designate the Economic and Social Council as the ad interim Member State body to receive reports from the board and the secretariat as elaborated in the 10-year framework of programmes on sustainable consumption and production patterns,<sup>23</sup> as well as its resolution 68/210 in this regard, also recalls the interactive discussions on sustainable consumption and production at the July 2014 meeting of the high-level political forum on sustainable development under the auspices of the Economic and Social Council, requests the board and the secretariat of the 10-year framework of programmes to report in a transparent, comprehensive and timely manner to the forum, when it meets under the auspices of the Economic and Social Council, on progress in the implementation of their work as elaborated in the 10-year framework of programmes, including on the voluntary trust fund, on an annual basis, and requests that such reporting, as well as the decisions and recommendations of the forum in this regard, be included in the report of the forum;

13. Decides, mindful of resolution 67/203, regarding the nomination of two members from each United Nations regional group to the board of the 10-year framework of programmes, that the United Nations regional groups, on an exceptional basis, will be allowed to renominate one of their existing two members of the board for one further consecutive term, taking into account the importance of ensuring continuity in the work of the board, while ensuring that no Member State may be eligible to serve more than two consecutive terms;

14. Recalls its decision that the high-level political forum on sustainable development shall strengthen the science-policy interface, also recalls the interactive discussions at the forum under the auspices of the Economic and Social Council held in July 2014 on the scope and methodology of a global sustainable development report, acknowledges ongoing efforts by the Department of Economic and Social Affairs of the Secretariat to coordinate the elaboration of a draft global sustainable development report, affirms that:

(a) The geographic scope of the report should be global, and the report should take into account different national realities, capacities and levels of development and respect national policies and priorities;

(b) The content should comprise progress in eradicating poverty, promoting sustainable development and fulfilling commitments regarding means of implementation, while integrating the three dimensions of sustainable development and taking into account past and future trends, scientific findings covering natural and social sciences and indicating potential areas for policy action and recommendations, lessons learned, opportunities and challenges for implementation;

(c) The report should incorporate existing United Nations assessments and analysis of efforts to achieve sustainable development in all three of its dimensions;

and decides that the forum should further consider the scope and methodology of a global sustainable development report at its next meeting under the auspices of the Economic and Social Council, on the basis of the prototype prepared by the Department of Economic and Social Affairs;

15. Takes note of the report of the Secretary-General on the mainstreaming of the three dimensions of sustainable development throughout the United Nations system,<sup>24</sup> reiterates the call of the United Nations Conference on Sustainable Development for the further mainstreaming of the three dimensions throughout the United Nations system, calls upon United Nations system organizations to assist countries in mainstreaming the three dimensions into their strategic plans and operational and other activities, encourages individual United Nations system organizations to undertake new efforts and explore new approaches to mainstream the three dimensions of sustainable development and to report on those efforts and on challenges encountered to the high-level political forum on sustainable development in 2016, and invites the Secretary-General to continue to report to the General Assembly, through the Economic and Social Council, on progress made, including for the consideration of the forum;

16. Requests the Secretary-General to submit a report on the implementation of the present resolution to the General Assembly at its seventieth session;

17. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its seventieth session, under the item entitled “Sustainable development”, the sub-item entitled “Implementation of Agenda 21, the Programme for the Further Implementation of Agenda 21 and the outcomes of the World Summit on Sustainable Development and of the United Nations Conference on Sustainable Development”.
