draft resolution

The General Assembly,

Reaffirming its resolution 32/130,

Recalling that the General Assembly, in its resolution 32/130, had requested the Commission on Human Rights to undertake an over-all analysis of the alternative approaches and ways and means within the United Nations system for improving the effective enjoyment of human rights and fundamental freedoms in the light of the concepts enumerated in that resolution,

Noting decision 1978/20 of the Economic and Social Council to authorize the convening of an open-ended working group of the Commission on Human Rights to meet for one week immediately before the Commission's thirty-fifth session to continue this over-all analysis,

Taking note of relevant parts of the Declaration of the Conference of Ministers for Foreign Affairs of Non-Aligned Countries (Belgrade, July 1978), in which, inter alia, the Ministers pointed out that the human rights and fundamental freedoms of the individual and of the peoples are inalienable and, proceeding from the inseparability of economic, social, cultural, civil and political rights, stressed the need to create conditions, on the national and international level, for the full promotion and protection of human rights of the individual and peoples,
