International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance

The General Assembly,

Reaffirming its resolution 61/177 of 20 December 2006, by which it adopted and opened for signature, ratification and accession the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance,<sup>1</sup>

Recalling its resolution 47/133 of 18 December 1992, by which it adopted the Declaration on the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance as a body of principles for all States,

Recalling also all its other resolutions on the matter, including resolutions 70/160 of 17 December 2015, 72/183 of 19 December 2017 and 74/161 of 18 December 2019, as well as relevant resolutions adopted by the Human Rights Council, including resolution 36/6 of 28 September  $2017^2$  and resolution 45/3 of 6 October 2020,<sup>3</sup>

Recalling further its resolution 68/165 of 18 December 2013 on the right to the truth, as well as Human Rights Council resolution 36/7 of 28 September 2017 on the Special Rapporteur on the promotion of truth, justice, reparation and guarantees of non-recurrence,<sup>4</sup>

Recalling its resolution 73/162 of 17 December 2018 on the human rights treaty body system,

Recalling also that no one shall be subjected to enforced disappearance,

Recalling further that no exceptional circumstance whatsoever may be invoked as a justification for enforced disappearance,

Recalling that no one shall be held in secret detention,

Deeply concerned, in particular, by the increase in enforced or involuntary disappearances in various regions of the world, including arrest, detention and abduction, when these are part of or amount to enforced disappearances, and by the growing number of reports concerning harassment, ill-treatment and intimidation of witnesses of disappearance or relatives of persons who have disappeared,

Recalling that the Convention sets out the right of victims to know the truth regarding the circumstances of the enforced disappearance, the progress and results of the investigation and the fate of the disappeared person, and sets forth State party obligations to take appropriate measures in this regard,

Recalling also that the Convention defines the victim of enforced disappearance as the disappeared person and any individual who has suffered harm as the direct result of an enforced disappearance,

Acknowledging that the widespread or systematic practice of enforced disappearance is recognized in the Convention as a crime against humanity, as defined in applicable international law,

Stressing the importance of the work of the Working Group on Enforced or Involuntary Disappearances,

Taking note of the recommendation made by the Working Group that more assistance should be provided to family members and members of civil society in order to enable them to report alleged cases of enforced disappearance to the Working Group, given that, in a large number of cases, the underreporting of cases of enforced disappearance remains a major problem owing to various reasons, including, inter alia, fear of reprisal, weak administration of justice, poverty and illiteracy,

Calling upon States that have not provided substantive replies concerning claims of enforced disappearances in their countries to do so, and to give due consideration to relevant recommendations concerning this issue made by the Working Group in its reports,

Encouraging the Working Group, in accordance with its working methods, to continue to provide the States concerned with relevant and detailed information concerning allegations of enforced disappearances in order to facilitate a prompt and substantive response to such communications without prejudice to the need for the States concerned to cooperate with the Working Group,

Recalling the high-level meeting of the General Assembly held on 17 February 2017 to commemorate the tenth anniversary of the adoption of the Convention, which provided an opportunity to review the positive impact of the Convention and to discuss ways and best practices to prevent enforced disappearances and to combat impunity by, inter alia, promoting the universal ratification of the Convention,

Recalling with appreciation the launch by the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights of an international campaign for the universal ratification of the Convention,

Recalling with appreciation also the decision of the General Assembly to declare 30 August International Day of the Victims of Enforced Disappearances,

Recalling with appreciation further the decision of the General Assembly in its resolution 65/196 of 21 December 2010 to proclaim, pursuant to the recommendation made by the Human Rights Council in its resolution 14/7 of 17 June 2010,<sup>5</sup> 24 March as the International Day for the Right to the Truth concerning Gross Human Rights Violations and for the Dignity of Victims,

Acknowledging the valuable work of the International Committee of the Red Cross in promoting compliance with international humanitarian law in this field,

Deeply concerned that the coronavirus disease (COVID-19) pandemic has created new contexts where enforced disappearances may occur and that measures related to fighting the pandemic have impacted the capacity of many actors to take the necessary action to search for disappeared persons and to investigate their alleged enforced disappearance,

Urging Member States to address gender-based violence, including as related to cases of enforced disappearance, and recalling that such violence can never be justified and that Member States should ensure that the COVID-19 pandemic does not limit measures taken to prevent and address enforced disappearances, including those involving gender-based violence, especially against women and girls,

1. Recognizes the importance of the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance, the ratification and the implementation of which is a significant contribution to ending impunity and to promoting and protecting all human rights for all;

2. Welcomes the fact that 98 States have signed the Convention and 64 have ratified or acceded to it, and calls upon States that have not yet done so to consider signing, ratifying or acceding to the Convention as a matter of priority, as well as to consider the option provided for in articles 31 and 32 of the Convention regarding the Committee on Enforced Disappearances;

3. Also welcomes the most recent reports of the Secretary-General on the status of the Convention;<sup>6</sup>

4. Requests the Secretary-General and the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights to increase their intensive efforts to assist States in becoming parties to the Convention, including by supporting the actions of States to ratify the Convention, providing technical and capacity-building assistance to States and civil society and raising awareness about the Convention, with a view to achieving universal adherence;

5. Requests United Nations agencies and organizations, and invites intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations and the Working Group on Enforced or Involuntary Disappearances to continue to make efforts to disseminate information on the Convention, to promote understanding of it and to assist States parties in implementing their obligations under this instrument, especially in the context of the commemoration of the fortieth anniversary of the Working Group in 2020;

6. Recalls with appreciation the first Conference of the States Parties to the Convention, held in Geneva on 19 December 2016, and convened in accordance with article 27 of the Convention, and the decision adopted by consensus that the Committee would continue to monitor the Convention in accordance with its mandate;<sup>7</sup>

7. Takes note with appreciation of the sixth meeting of the States parties to the Convention, held in New York on 14 June 2021, and its discussion of substantive matters related to the Convention, and encourages all States parties to the Convention to continue to include such a discussion in the agenda of the meeting of the States parties;

8. Welcomes the work achieved by the Committee, and encourages all States parties to the Convention to submit their reports, to support and promote the work of the Committee and to implement its recommendations;

9. Calls upon all States parties to further cooperate with the Committee, including by responding favourably to its requests for visits;

10. Takes note of the guiding principles for the search for disappeared persons adopted by the Committee at its sixteenth session and developed in dialogue and broad consultations with Member States and other relevant stakeholders;<sup>8</sup>

11. Recognizes the importance of the Declaration on the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance<sup>9</sup> as a body of principles for all States that is designed to punish enforced disappearances, to prevent their commission and to help victims of such acts and their families to seek fair, prompt and adequate reparation;

12. Welcomes the cooperation established between the Working Group and the Committee, within the framework of their respective mandates, as well as with other relevant special procedures and treaty bodies, within the framework of their respective mandates, and encourages them to continue their cooperation in the future;

13. Takes note with interest of all the general comments of the Working Group, including the comments on children <sup>10</sup> and women <sup>11</sup> affected by enforced disappearances, and recognizes in this regard that enforced disappearances have special consequences for women and vulnerable groups, especially children, as they most often bear the serious economic hardships that usually accompany such disappearances and, when subjected to enforced disappearances themselves, may become particularly vulnerable to sexual and other forms of violence;

14. Takes note of the need to document cases concerning enforced or involuntary disappearances allegedly perpetrated by non-State actors, as decided by the Working Group;

15. Welcomes the fact that the Committee held its annual meeting with the Working Group, as an opportunity to take stock of the activities of the two parallel organs, which are complementary and reinforce each other within the framework of their respective mandates;

16. Takes note with appreciation of the guidelines to prevent and address intimidation and reprisals against individuals and groups cooperating with the Committee adopted by the Committee at its twentieth session;<sup>12</sup>

17. Also takes note with appreciation of the key guidelines on COVID-19 and enforced disappearances, in which the Working Group and the Committee recalled that enforced disappearance is prohibited in all circumstances and called upon Member States to continue, during the COVID-19 pandemic, to respect their international obligations;

18. Invites the Chair of the Committee and the Chair of the Working Group to address and engage in an interactive dialogue with the General Assembly at its seventy-seventh and seventy-eighth sessions under the item entitled "Promotion and protection of human rights";

19. Requests the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly at its seventy-eighth session a report on the status of the Convention and the implementation of the present resolution;

20. Decides to give its full consideration to the subject matter at its seventy-eighth session.
