GENERAL ASSEMBLY

PROVISIONAL VERBATIM RECORD OF THE FIRST MEETING

Held at Headquarters, New York,
on Tuesday, 22 July 1980, at 10.30 a.m.Corrigendum

On page 41, the first paragraph should read as follows:

What solution, then, remains to be advocated? Mediation, conciliation, resolutions - more than 250 of them so far - none of these have had any result. Logically, there is only one solution: the one provided for since the beginning of the conflict by General Assembly resolutions 181 (II), 194 (III) and 303 (IV), subsequently complemented, as we know, by a whole range of resolutions adopted both by the Security Council and by the United Nations General Assembly.
