86.82	Accept w/explanation	FSM Government welcomes this recommendation. There are ongoing efforts towards the passage of a national legislation on Freedom of Information for consideration by the National Congress. A draft bill is currently being considered by the Executive – the proposed Freedom of Information Act. This draft bill received technical support and expert advice from the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC) and also from the UN Pacific Regional Anti-Corruption Project (UN-PRAC). This bill provides a general policy direction guaranteeing transparency in public service and access to public information. It also establishes a set of procedures to implement the disclosure of public information upon request. Under this bill, any person has a right to request a national agency to be able to access public information. Each national agency shall have a designated Information Officer responsible for processing requests. Subject to certain exceptions such as rights of a third party, national security considerations, and legal privileges recognized by FSM case law, any public information must be disclosed. A decision not to disclose information may be appealed to the Office of the President. If a person is not satisfied with the decision, such may be brought to court for further appeal. Once this bill is transmitted to the National Congress, it is expected to be assigned to one of the outstanding committees of the FSM Congress for appropriate study and deliberation, and to be reported back to the plenary for its recommendation and for a vote. FSM Government will continue to need further technical and capacity building assistance from its partners around the world and from the UN Agencies to the extent feasible, to ensure that this freedom of information bill once approved through the national legislative process will be implemented fully and properly.

Theme 13: Specific persons or groups: Migrants, refugees, asylum seekers and IDPs

86.154	Accept	FSM Government is committed to protecting human rights according to legal obligations that it has assumed pursuant to certain core human rights conventions and protocols that it has acceded to. This commitment is exemplified by a court decision by the FSM Supreme Court declaring as legally binding customary international law protection the rights of refugees. Also, in 2017, the FSM Government had issued Executive Order recognizing the situation of certain refugees entering FSM territory from Asia. Those refugees were granted adequate living standards until resettlement. With the assistance of the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, FSM was able to identify the appropriate status of these individuals as refugees, and on that basis, the FSM Government was able to work and collaborate with foreign governments for the resettlement of the refugees.
