Terrorism and human rights

Note by the Secretariat

In its resolution 74/147, the General Assembly strongly condemned all terrorist acts as criminal and unjustifiable, and expressed grave concern at their detrimental effects on the enjoyment of all human rights. It reaffirmed that States must ensure that any measure taken to combat terrorism complied with their obligations under international law, in particular international human rights law, international refugee law and international humanitarian law. It requested the Secretary-General to submit a report on the implementation of the resolution to the Human Rights Council and to the Assembly at its seventy-sixth session. In that regard, the Secretariat has the honour to refer the Council to the report of the Secretary-General on terrorism and human rights,<sup>1</sup> submitted to the Assembly pursuant to that request.
