IV relating to financial reforms, chapter V on the establishment of a hybrid court for South Sudan, a commission for truth, reconciliation and healing and a compensation and reparation authority, and chapter VI on the constitution-making process,

Reiterating that further and timely progress is needed to implement the Revitalized Agreement,

Welcoming the efforts made by the Government of South Sudan to maintain peace and for the cessation of hostilities, the protection of civilians and for humanitarian access to the civilians affected by, inter alia, environmental events that have resulted in flooding in some parts of the country,

Welcoming also the return to Keji-Kaji and Morobo in Central Equatoria State of 90,000 internally displaced persons facilitated by the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees and the Relief and Rehabilitation Commission,

1. Welcomes the recent steps taken by the Government of South Sudan towards finalizing governance structures in South Sudan, including by reconstituting the transitional National Legislative Assembly, and calls upon the Government to continue to make progress in finalizing all layers of State and local government, in accordance with the Revitalized Agreement on the Resolution of the Conflict in the Republic of South Sudan;

2. Recalls all relevant decisions and communiqués of the African Union and the Intergovernmental Authority on Development, and the communiqués of the Peace and Security Council of the African Union of 14 November 2019 and 27 January 2020, in which the Council, inter alia, re-emphasized its request to the Government of South Sudan and the African Union Commission to accelerate the establishment of transitional justice mechanisms under chapter V of the Revitalized Agreement, and the constitution-making process;

3. Recognizes the political will of the Government of South Sudan in promoting and protecting human rights and its wish for tangible progress and for the prevention of further human rights violations and abuses, by establishing in Juba a court to try cases of gender-based violence and military mobile courts to prosecute offences committed against civilians by members of the organized forces while on duty;

4. Emphasizes the need for the Government of South Sudan to ensure the effective and meaningful participation of women during all stages and in all structures envisaged in the Revitalized Agreement, and for all parties to the Agreement to meet their commitments regarding women's representation and to ensure balance in the representation of youth, gender and national and regional diversity in their appointments;

5. Stresses that States have the primary responsibility for the promotion and protection of human rights by taking measures to prevent human rights violations and to provide an effective remedy for victims of such violations and abuses, and recalls that the Government of South Sudan has the primary responsibility to protect the population from all human rights violations, including by preventing violations of international humanitarian law;

6. Notes however the challenges facing the Government of South Sudan in this regard, and requests the international community to provide technical assistance to and support for the Government in its efforts to prevent and to investigate violations of international humanitarian and human rights law;

7. Calls upon the international community to provide technical and financial assistance to South Sudan in order to further improve the situation of human rights, to enhance the functioning of the legal system, and to allow the Government of South Sudan to effectively deliver necessary services, including criminal investigations and prosecution, education and health-care services, food and clean drinking water and infrastructure;

8. Requests the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights, in cooperation with the Government of South Sudan and relevant mechanisms of the African Union, to urgently assist South Sudan to address human rights challenges in the post-conflict transition, by:

(a) Determining the capacity-building needs of South Sudanese institutions in order that they may pursue transitional justice and investigate and prosecute conflict-related crimes;

(b) Providing the Government of South Sudan with technical assistance for the establishment of the transitional justice institutions under chapter V of the Revitalized Agreement, and building the capacity of local courts to investigate and prosecute conflict-related crimes, with a view to improving accountability and promoting reconciliation and healing in South Sudan;

(c) Providing the Government with the technical assistance and capacity-building necessary to enable it to deliver necessary services;

(d) Reporting to the Human Rights Council on the support provided to the Government of South Sudan in the form of technical and capacity-building support in accordance with the terms of the present resolution;

(e) Engaging with the Government of South Sudan, international and regional mechanisms, including the United Nations Mission in South Sudan and the African Union, with a view to addressing human rights violations and abuses committed during the conflict by the parties;

9. Also requests the Office of the High Commissioner to present to the Human Rights Council, at its fifty-first session, an oral update, including on progress made, to be followed by an interactive dialogue, with the participation of representatives of the African Union, and to present a comprehensive report to the Council at its fifty-second session, to be followed by an interactive dialogue;

10. Further requests the Office of the High Commissioner to submit the above-mentioned report and recommendations to the Human Rights Council, then to share them with the African Union and all relevant organs of the United Nations, including the United Nations Mission in South Sudan;

11. Requests the Secretary-General to provide all the resources necessary to enable the Office of the High Commissioner to provide such administrative, technical and logistical support as necessary to implement the provisions of the present resolution;

12. Decides to remain seized of the matter.
