1312 (XIII). The situation in Hungary

The General Assembly,

Having considered the supplementary report, dated 14 July 1958, of the United Nations Special Committee⁴ established by resolution 1132 (XI) of 10 January 1957 to report on the problem of Hungary,

Having considered the report, dated 9 December 1957, of the Special Representative of the General Assembly, His Royal Highness Prince Wan Waithayakon,⁵ who was appointed by Assembly resolution 1133 (XI) of 14 September 1957 to take steps to achieve the objectives of Assembly resolutions 1004 (ES-II) of 4 November 1956, 1127 (XI) of 21 November 1956, 1131 (XI) of 12 December 1956 and 1132 (XI) of 10 January 1957,

1. Expresses its appreciation to its Special Representative, Prince Wan Waithayakon, for the efforts he has made to enter into consultation with the appropriate authorities with a view to achieving the objectives of the resolutions referred to above;

2. Endorses the unanimous report of the Special Committee on the Problem of Hungary, dated 14 July 1958, and expresses its thanks to the Committee for its objective and efficient discharge of the tasks entrusted to it;

3. Deplores the continued refusal of the Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the régime in Hungary to co-operate with the Special Representative and with the Committee in their efforts to achieve the objectives of the United Nations in accordance with the pertinent resolutions of the General Assembly;

⁴ Official Records of the General Assembly, Thirteenth Session, Annexes, agenda item 69, document A/3849.

⁵ Ibid., Twelfth Session, Annexes, agenda item 63, document A/3774.

4. Deplores the continuing repression in Hungary of fundamental rights of the Hungarian people and of their freedom of political expression under the shadow of the continuing presence of Soviet armed forces;

5. Denounces the execution of Mr. Imre Nagy, General Pál Maléter and other Hungarian patriots;

6. Condemns this continued defiance of the resolutions of the General Assembly;

7. Again calls upon the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the present authorities in Hungary to desist from repressive measures against the Hungarian people and to respect the liberty and political independence of Hungary and the Hungarian people's enjoyment of fundamental human rights and freedoms;

8. Declares that the United Nations will continue to be seized of the situation in Hungary in view of the fact that the Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the present authorities in Hungary are disregarding the above-mentioned resolutions of the General Assembly;

9. Decides to appoint Sir Leslie Munro to represent the United Nations for the purpose of reporting to Member States or to the General Assembly on significant developments relating to the implementation of the Assembly resolutions on Hungary;

10. Requests the Secretary-General to provide the necessary facilities to assist Sir Leslie Munro in the performance of his duties.

*787th plenary meeting,

1344 (XIII). Report of the Secretary-General on the Second United Nations International Conference on the Peaceful Uses of Atomic Energy

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 810 (IX) of 4 December 1954 and 912 (X) of 3 December 1955 relating to the two international conferences on the peaceful uses of atomic energy, to the International Atomic Energy Agency and to the Secretary-General's Advisory Committee in this field,

Having considered the report of the Secretary-General⁸ on the Second United Nations International Conference on the Peaceful Uses of Atomic Energy held in Geneva from 1 to 13 September 1958,

Noting therein the need stated by the Secretary-General for the continuing expert assistance of the Advisory Committee with broader terms of reference,

Recognizing the helpfulness of a thorough evaluation of the Second Conference in considering the need, nature and timing of similar conferences in this field,

1. Records its satisfaction with the contribution made by the Second United Nations International Conference on the Peaceful Uses of Atomic Energy to the free international exchange of scientific and technical information and to expanded international co-operation in the field of peaceful uses of atomic energy;

2. Expresses its appreciation to the Secretary-General, the Advisory Committee, the Secretary-General of the Conference and the participants in the Conference for their co-operation in the planning, organizing and successful conduct of the Conference;

3. Decides that the Advisory Committee established in paragraph 5 of section B of resolution 810 (IX) and continued under paragraph 7 of section I of resolution 912 (X), as now constituted, shall be extended as the United Nations Scientific Advisory Committee, and that henceforth it shall advise and assist the Secretary-General, at his request, on all matters relating to the peaceful uses of atomic energy with which the United Nations may be concerned;

4. Requests the Secretary-General and the United Nations Scientific Advisory Committee, in consultation with the International Atomic Energy Agency and the interested specialized agencies, to undertake a thorough evaluation of the Second Conference in relation to the need, nature and timing of similar conferences in this field;

5. Requests the Secretary-General to submit an interim report to the General Assembly at its fourteenth session and a report on the results of such study at the fifteenth session.

*791st plenary meeting,
13 December 1958.*

⁸ Ibid., agenda item 66, document A/3949.
