

Confident that an appropriate way of celebrating the twentieth anniversary of the United Nations is through a year of increased international co-operation and joint efforts and undertakings,

Convinced that a designated period may serve both to direct attention to the common interests of mankind and to accelerate the joint efforts being undertaken to further them,

1. Requests the President of the General Assembly to nominate a Preparatory Committee of up to twelve Member States to meet at United Nations Headquarters;

2. Requests the Preparatory Committee to consider the desirability of designating 1965, the twentieth year of the United Nations, as International Co-operation Year, and to report to the General Assembly at its eighteenth session on the feasibility and financial implications of this proposal;

3. Requests the Preparatory Committee to report to the General Assembly at its eighteenth session on measures and activities that might be undertaken by Member States and by and through specialized agencies and the International Atomic Energy Agency, in pursuance of the present resolution and in furtherance of its objectives;

4. Invites non-governmental organizations having consultative status with the Economic and Social Council, the specialized agencies and the International Atomic Energy Agency, and any other appropriate organizations in Member States, to begin making plans for special efforts and projects for the International Co-operation Year, and to render all assistance to the Preparatory Committee;

5. Requests the Secretary-General to provide the Preparatory Committee with all the necessary facilities for the accomplishment of its tasks.

*1198th plenary meeting,
19 December 1962.*

The President of the General Assembly, in pursuance of paragraph 1 of the above resolution, appointed the following members of the Preparatory Committee on the International Co-operation Year: CANADA, CENTRAL AFRICAN REPUBLIC, CEYLON, CYPRUS, CZECHOSLOVAKIA, FINLAND, INDIA, IRELAND, PARAGUAY, PERU, THAILAND and UNITED ARAB REPUBLIC.²⁶

1845 (XVII). Improvement of the methods of work of the General Assembly

The General Assembly,

Having established on 30 October 1962 an Ad Hoc Committee on the Improvement of the Methods of Work of the General Assembly,²⁷

Having received from the Ad Hoc Committee a report²⁸ in which the Committee stated that it would not submit a final report to the General Assembly at its present session,

1. Decides to continue the Ad Hoc Committee on the Improvement of the Methods of Work of the General Assembly, with its present membership and terms of reference, and requests the Committee to transmit to the Secretary-General by 31 May 1963 a report, with recommendations or suggestions, for circulation to Member States;

2. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its eighteenth session an item entitled "Report of the Ad Hoc Committee on the Improvement of the Methods of Work of the General Assembly", and recommends that priority should be given to the consideration of this item.

*1198th plenary meeting,
19 December 1962.*
