2966 (XXVII). International conference of plenipotentiaries on the representation of States in their relations with international organizations

The General Assembly,

Having considered the item entitled "Representation of States in their relations with international organizations",

Having noted the report of the Secretary-General<sup>10</sup> containing the comments and observations received from Member States, Switzerland, the Secretary-General, specialized agencies and the International Atomic Energy Agency, submitted in accordance with General Assembly resolution 2780 (XXVI) of 3 December 1971,

Recalling that in its resolution 2780 (XXVI) the General Assembly noted with satisfaction that at its twenty-third session, in 1971, the International Law Commission, in the light of the observations and comments of Member States, Switzerland and the secretariats of various international organizations and taking into account the relevant resolutions and debates of the Assembly, revised the provisional draft articles on the representation of States in their relations with international organizations, prepared at its twentieth, twenty-first and twenty-second sessions, and adopted a final set of draft articles as the basis of a convention,

Recalling further that in its resolution 2780 (XXVI) the General Assembly expressed its appreciation to the International Law Commission for its valuable work on the question of representation of States in their relations with international organizations and to the Special Rapporteur on the topic for his contribution to this work,

1. Decides that an international conference of plenipotentiaries shall be convened as soon as practicable to consider the draft articles on the representation of States in their relations with international organizations and to embody the results of its work in an international convention and such other instruments as it may deem appropriate;

2. Further decides to include in the provisional agenda of its twenty-eighth session an item entitled "International conference of plenipotentiaries on the representation of States in their relations with international organizations" in order that the General Assembly may consider the question of participation in the conference, the date and place of the conference and other related matters;

3. Requests the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly at its twenty-eighth session a memorandum on the methods of work of the conference so that the Assembly may consider the matter with a view to reducing the costs of the conference.

2967 (XXVII). Report of the Special Committee on the Question of Defining Aggression

The General Assembly,

Having considered the report of the Special Committee on the Question of Defining Aggression on the work of its fifth session, held in New York from 31 January to 3 March 1972,<sup>11</sup>

Noting the progress so far achieved by the Special Committee in its consideration of the question of defining aggression and on the draft definition, as reflected in its report,

Considering that it was not possible for the Special Committee to complete its task at its fifth session,

Considering that in its resolutions 2330 (XXII) of 18 December 1967, 2420 (XXIII) of 18 December 1968, 2549 (XXIV) of 12 December 1969, 2644 (XXV) of 25 November 1970 and 2781 (XXVI) of 3 December 1971 the General Assembly recognized the widespread conviction of the need to expedite the definition of aggression,

Considering the urgency of bringing the work of the Special Committee to a successful conclusion and the desirability of achieving the definition of aggression as soon as possible,

Noting also the common desire of the members of the Special Committee to continue their work on the basis of the results achieved and to arrive with due speed at a draft definition in a spirit of mutual understanding and accommodation,

1. Decides that the Special Committee on the Question of Defining Aggression shall resume its work at Geneva, in accordance with General Assembly resolution 2330 (XXII), as early as possible after 1 April 1973;

2. Requests the Secretary-General to provide the Special Committee with the necessary facilities and services;

3. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its twenty-eighth session the item entitled "Report of the Special Committee on the Question of Defining Aggression".
