

the set of recommendations of the Conference pertaining to development and environment,⁵⁶

Recalling further paragraphs 2 (e) and 5 (d) of Conference resolution 1 (I) of 15 June 1972⁵⁷ on institutional and financial arrangements,

Bearing in mind Economic and Social Council resolution 1718 (LIII) of 28 July 1972,

1. Stresses the importance of action at the national level for protecting and enhancing the environment;

2. Calls upon the Governing Council of the United Nations Environment Programme⁵⁸ to explore at its first session ways and means of promoting effective regional programmes in the field of the environment;

3. Requests the Governing Council of the United Nations Environment Programme, in formulating environmental programmes, to ensure the compatibility of the implementation of these programmes with:

(a) The policy measures and objectives of the International Development Strategy for the Second United Nations Development Decade⁵⁹ relating to science and technology;

(b) Policy measures and objectives that are to be recommended by the Committee on Science and Technology for Development upon consideration of the World Plan of Action for the Application of Science and Technology to Development;⁶⁰

4. Requests the Governing Council of the United Nations Environment Programme and the Committee on Review and Appraisal to keep this matter under review and to report to the General Assembly at its twenty-ninth session, through the Economic and Social Council, on the steps taken with regard to paragraph 3 above.

3001 (XXVII). United Nations Conference-Exposition on Human Settlements

The General Assembly,

Recalling resolution 2718 (XXV) of 15 December 1970, in which it recommended broad directions and measures essential for the improvement of human settlements,

Noting the urgency of the world-wide human settlement problems, present and future,

Taking into account the World Plan of Action for the Application of Science and Technology to Development,⁶¹

Considering the important role assigned to housing as part of the International Development Strategy for the Second United Nations Development Decade,⁶²

Recognizing the need for international efforts to develop new and additional approaches to these problems, especially in the developing countries,

Desiring to maintain the momentum of the United Nations Conference on the Human Environment in this area through a conference-exposition on human settlements, the preparation for which should generate a review of policies and programmes for human settlements, national and international, and should result in the selection and support of a series of demonstration projects on human settlements sponsored by individual countries and the United Nations,

Taking into account recommendation 2.2 of the Action Plan for the Human Environment⁶³ adopted by the United Nations Conference on the Human Environment,

1. Decides to hold a United Nations Conference-Exposition on Human Settlements;

2. Accepts the offer of the Government of Canada to act as host to the Conference-Exposition in 1975;

3. Requests the Secretary-General to prepare and submit to the Governing Council of the United Nations Environment Programme⁶⁴ at its first session a report containing a plan for, and anticipated costs of, the Conference-Exposition.

3002 (XXVII). Development and environment

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 2849 (XXVI) of 20 December 1971 entitled "Development and environment",

Considering its resolution 2997 (XXVII) of 15 December 1972 on institutional and financial arrangements for international environmental co-operation,

Noting the set of recommendations of the United Nations Conference on the Human Environment pertaining to development and environment,⁶⁵

Reaffirming the importance of implementing the objectives and policy measures of the International Development Strategy for the Second United Nations Development Decade⁶⁶ and the need to provide adequate resources for their fulfilment,

Bearing in mind that the funds available to the international community for research and action in the fields of the protection and enhancement of the environment will tend to be scarce in relation to the needs,

1. Stresses that, in the implementation and financing of the objectives set forth in section III, paragraphs 2 and 3, of General Assembly resolution 2997 (XXVII), such environmental measures and programmes as may also constitute a necessary part of the process of accelerating the economic development of developing countries should receive special consideration in the formulation of programmes and priorities by the Governing Council of the United Nations Environment Programme;

2. Requests the Governing Council of the United Nations Environment Programme in formulating environmental programmes to ensure, in accordance with the principles set forth in General Assembly resolution 2849 (XXVI), the compatibility of these programmes with the objectives and policy measures of global strategies and sectoral guidelines for the economic
