38/39. Policies of apartheid of the Government of South Africa⁶⁷

A

SITUATION IN SOUTH AFRICA

The General Assembly,

Recalling and reaffirming its resolution 37/69 of 9 December 1982,

Having considered the report of the Special Committee against Apartheid,⁶⁸ as well as its special report on recent developments concerning relations between Israel and South Africa,⁶⁹

Taking note of the declarations of conferences organized or co-sponsored by the Special Committee, namely, the International Conference of Trade Unions on Sanctions and Other Actions against the Apartheid Régime in South Africa, held at Geneva on 10 and 11 June 1983,⁷⁰ the International Conference for Sanctions against Apartheid in Sports, held in London from 27 to 29 June 1983,⁷¹ the International Non-Governmental Organizations Conference on Action against Apartheid and Racism, held at Geneva from 5 to 8 July 1983,⁷² the International Conference on the Alliance between South Africa and Israel, held at Vienna from 11 to 13 July 1983,⁷³ and the Latin American Regional Conference for Action against Apartheid, held at Caracas from 16 to 18 September 1983,⁷⁴

Gravely concerned over the threat to international peace and security, and repeated breaches of the peace and acts of aggression, caused by the policies and actions of the racist minority régime of South Africa,

Condemning the racist minority régime of South Africa for its repeated defiance of the United Nations, its oppression of the great majority of the people of South Africa and its ruthless repression of all opponents of apartheid,

Strongly condemning the execution of Simon Mogoerane, Jerry Mosololi and Thabo Motaung, members of the African National Congress of South Africa, in defiance of appeals by the General Assembly and the Security Council.

Reaffirming that apartheid is a crime against humanity,

Strongly convinced that peace and stability in southern Africa require the total eradication of apartheid and the exercise of the right of self-determination by all the people of South Africa, irrespective of race, colour or creed,

Convinced that the racist minority régime of South Africa has been encouraged to perpetrate those criminal acts by the protection accorded to it by major Western Powers against international sanctions and by their continued collaboration with it,

Recognizing that the policies and actions of certain Western Powers and Israel are the main obstacles that have frustrated international efforts for the elimination of apartheid,

Condemning, in particular, the increased collaboration by the Government of the United States of America with the racist régime of South Africa, in pursuance of its policy of so-called "constructive engagement", which has encouraged the racist régime to entrench apartheid, intensify repression and escalate aggression against and destabilization of independent African States,
