

sible and desirable, with a view to ensuring international peace and security and to developing international criminal law, to define aggression by reference to the elements which constitute it,

Considering further that it would be of definite advantage if directives were formulated for the future guidance of such international bodies as may be called upon to determine the aggressor,

1. Decides to include in the agenda of its seventh session the question of defining aggression;

2. Instructs the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly at its seventh session a report in which the question of defining aggression shall be thoroughly discussed in the light of the views expressed in the Sixth Committee at the sixth session of the General Assembly and which shall duly take into account the draft resolutions and amendments submitted concerning this question;

3. Requests States Members, when transmitting their observations on the draft Code to the Secretary-General, to give in particular their views on the problem of defining aggression.

*368th plenary meeting,
31 January 1952.*

600 (VI). Review of the Statute of the International Law Commission

The General Assembly,

Referring to its resolution 484 (V) of 12 December 1950 in which it asked the International Law Commission for "recommendations . . . concerning revisions of the Statute which may appear desirable, in the light of experience, for the promotion of the Commission's work",

Considering that, according to the report covering the work of its third session, the said Commission, in pursuance of the General Assembly's resolution, recommended⁷ that, at the time of the next election of its members, the Commission should be placed on a full-time basis,

1. Notes the observations and recommendations contained in chapter V of the report of the International Law Commission;

2. Expresses appreciation for the work done by the Commission pursuant to the terms of its Statute;

3. Decides, for the time being, not to take any action in respect of the revision of the said Statute until it has acquired further experience of the functioning of the Commission.

*368th plenary meeting,
31 January 1952.*

601 (VI). Report of the International Law Commission covering the work of its third session (chapters VI, VII and VIII)

The General Assembly,

Pending its consideration of the questions dealt with in chapters VI, VII and VIII of the report⁸ of the International Law Commission covering the work of its third session,

Notes the progress of the Commission's work on those questions.

*368th plenary meeting,
31 January 1952.*

602 (VI). Ways and means for making the evidence of customary international law more readily available

The General Assembly,

Having considered the report⁹ of the Secretary-General on ways and means for making the evidence of customary international law more readily available.

1. Notes with satisfaction that a répertoire relating to the interpretation of the Charter is already under way;

2. Instructs the Secretary-General to continue his studies relating to the best methods for securing for the United Nations the required national legislative material;

3. Requests the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly at its seventh session a report containing detailed plans as to the form, contents and budgetary implications in regard to the possible publication of:

(a) A United Nations juridical yearbook, taking into account the suggestions made during the debates in the Sixth Committee;

(b) A consolidated index to the League of Nations Treaty Series;

(c) A list of treaty collections supplementary to those already existing;

(d) A volume containing a répertoire of the practice of the Security Council.

*369th plenary meeting,
1 February 1952.*

603 (VI). Designation of non-member States to which a certified copy of the Revised General Act for the Pacific Settlement of International Disputes shall be communicated by the Secretary-General for the purpose of accession to this Act

The General Assembly,

Considering that only three Members of the United Nations have become parties to the Revised General Act for the Pacific Settlement of International Disputes,¹⁰ and that in the circumstances its communication to non-member States under article 43, paragraph 1, of the Act would be premature,

Decides to defer further consideration of the matter until at least ten Members of the United Nations have become parties to the Act.

*369th plenary meeting,
1 February 1952.*

604 (VI). Regulations to give effect to article III, section 8, of the Headquarters Agreement between the United Nations and the United States of America

The General Assembly,

Considering the provisions of article III, section 8, of the Headquarters Agreement¹¹ between the United Nations and the United States of America, which came into force on 21 November 1947,

Recalling General Assembly resolution 481 (V) of 12 December 1950, which prescribed the method for giving effect to article III, section 8, of the Headquarters Agreement,

Having considered the report¹² of the Secretary-General containing Headquarters regulation No. 1, which was promulgated with immediate effect by the Secretary-General on 26 February 1951, and presenting draft Headquarters regulations Nos. 2 and 3 for approval by the General Assembly,

1. Confirms Headquarters regulation No. 1 of 26 February 1951, on the United Nations social security system, annexed to the present resolution;

2. Approves Headquarters regulation No. 2 on qualifications for professional or other special occupational services with the United Nations, and Headquarters regulation No. 3 on the operation of services within the Headquarters District, as annexed to the present resolution.

*369th plenary meeting,
1 February 1952.*

ANNEX

Headquarters Regulations

For the purpose of establishing in the Headquarters District conditions in all respects necessary for the full execution of the functions of the United Nations, and in particular for the purposes specified in each regulation, the following regulations are in effect:

¹⁰ For the original text of this instrument as adopted on 26 September 1928 by the Assembly of the League of Nations, see League of Nations Treaty Series, Volume 1929-1930, Nos. 1, 2, 3 and 4, page 345 et seq. For the amendments inserted in this text by the General Assembly of the United Nations, see resolution 268 A (III) adopted on 28 April 1949 by the General Assembly.

¹¹ See resolution 169 (II) adopted on 31 October 1947 by the General Assembly.

REGULATION No. 1

United Nations Social Security System

For the purpose, in the field of staff social security, of giving immediate effect to measures necessary for avoiding multiple obligations arising from the possible application of overlapping laws and regulations:

1. A comprehensive United Nations social security system having been established for the purpose of affording protection against all reasonable risks arising out of or incurred during service with the United Nations, the provisions of the United Nations social security system shall constitute the only obligations of the United Nations in respect of such risks.

2. The provisions of the United Nations social security system shall constitute the sole provisions under which persons in the service of the United Nations shall be entitled to claim against the United Nations in respect of any risks within the purview of the United Nations social security system, and any payments made under the United Nations social security system shall constitute the sole payments which any such person shall be entitled to receive from the United Nations in respect of any such risks.

3. This regulation shall take effect on the date of its promulgation, without prejudice, however, to any elements of the United Nations social security system, or any rights or obligations thereunder, already existing at the date of this regulation.

PROMULGATED by the Secretary-General on 26 February 1951, with immediate effect, in pursuance of the authority conferred on him by resolution 481 (V) of the General Assembly, and CONFIRMED by the General Assembly in resolution 604 (VI) of 1 February 1952.

REGULATION No. 2

Qualifications for professional or other special occupational services with the United Nations

For the purpose of availing the United Nations of the professional or special occupational services of persons recruited on as wide a geographical basis as possible:

The qualifications and requirements necessary for the performance of professional or other special occupational services within the Headquarters District shall be determined by the Secretary-General; provided that, prior to authorizing medical or nursing services by any person, the Secretary-General shall ascertain that such person has been duly qualified to perform such services in his own or another country.

APPROVED by General Assembly resolution 604 (VI) of 1 February 1952.

REGULATION No. 3

Operation of services within the Headquarters District

For the purpose of ensuring uninterrupted services necessary to the proper functioning of the principal and subsidiary organs of the United Nations:

The times and hours of operation of any services and facilities or retail establishments authorized within the Headquarters District shall be in compliance with schedules fixed by the Secretary-General; no regulations, requirements or prohibitions beyond those so prescribed shall be imposed without his approval.

APPROVED by General Assembly resolution 604 (VI) of 1 February 1952.
