⁵ A/77/286.

⁶ A/77/7/Add.10.

2. Also takes note of the reports of the Secretary-General on the investments of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund and measures undertaken to increase the diversification of the Fund and on the administrative and financial implications arising from the report of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Board;

3. Further takes note of the report of the Chief Executive of Pension Administration and the Representative of the Secretary-General for the investment of the assets of the Fund on the implementation of the recommendations of the Board of Auditors contained in its report for the year ended 31 December 2021 on the Fund;

4. Endorses the conclusions and recommendations of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions, subject to the provisions of the present resolution;

5. Emphasizes the existing prerogative of the General Assembly on matters pertaining to the Fund;

6. Takes note with appreciation of the work of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Board;

Financial statements of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund and report of the Board of Auditors

7. Acknowledges the commitment of the Pension Fund to manage long-standing recommendations of the Board of Auditors, and reiterates the importance of the secretariat of the Fund, the Pension Board and the Representative of the Secretary-General addressing all the accepted recommendations of the Board of Auditors and the Office of Internal Oversight Services, in full and in a timely manner, and of reporting thereon in the next report to the General Assembly;

Actuarial matters

8. Stresses the importance of continuing to achieve the necessary 3.5 per cent annual real rate of return on a long-term basis for the future solvency of the Fund;

Governance matters

9. Welcomes the continued implementation by the Pension Board of the governance reform plan, which takes into account best practices as recommended by the Governance Working Group and respects the unique nature of the Fund, acknowledges that the Board considers that the reform plan has started to contribute to improving efficiency and effective decision-making, and requests the Board to monitor and report on the progress achieved in this regard to the General Assembly at its seventy-eighth session;

10. Recalls paragraph 13 of section XIII of its resolution 76/246 A, and requests the Pension Board to provide an update at the main part of the seventy-eighth session;

11. Also recalls paragraph 14 of section XIII of its resolution 76/246 A, and reiterates its request that the Secretary-General and the Pension Board ensure that the staff composition of the Office of Investment Management and of the Pension Administration is based on as wide a geographical basis as possible, bearing in mind Article 101, paragraph 3, of the Charter of the United Nations, and to make every effort to provide an update on progress achieved in the context of their next reports;

Pension Administration

12. Welcomes the proposal to establish a Risk Management Unit aimed at strengthening the risk management capabilities of the Pension Administration, and requests the Board to provide updated information on the Unit's performance in the next report;

13. Emphasizes the importance of implementing swiftly the new customer relationship management system, and calls upon all involved stakeholders to conclude the procurement contract before the end of 2022, in order to strengthen services to clients and deal with the increased number of requests while improving efficiency gains;

14. Recalls paragraph 55 of the report of the Advisory Committee, welcomes the deployment of the digital certificate of entitlement, and requests the Pension Administration to provide an update on the utilization of the digital certificate of entitlement, including progress on the reduction of risks of fraud or overpayments, and on measures to ensure its cost-effective implementation in the context of its next report;

Investments of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund

15. Reaffirms that the Secretary-General serves as fiduciary for the investment of the assets of the Fund;

16. Also reaffirms that the investment of the assets of the Fund shall be decided upon by the Secretary-General after consultation with an Investments Committee and in the light of observations and suggestions made from time to time by the Pension Board on the investments policy;

17. Notes that the annual real rate of return of the Fund for the 10-year and 15-year periods remained markedly above the long-term objective of 3.5 per cent, and encourages the Fund to continue its efforts to improve the performance of its investments and identify suitable comparators with peers from various countries and provide a comparison thereof in the context of its next report;

18. Recalls the four main criteria for investment utilized by the Fund, and requests the Secretary-General to continue to explore, in consultation with the Investments Committee and taking into account the observations and suggestions by the Pension Board, impact investing for part of the portfolio, including in developing and emerging markets, such as Africa and Asia and other regions, bearing in mind the real rate of return target, and to report thereon to the General Assembly in his next report;

19. Requests the Secretary-General, as fiduciary for the investment of the assets of the Fund, to continue to diversify its investments among developed, developing and emerging markets, wherever this serves the interests of the participants and the beneficiaries of the Fund, and also requests the Secretary-General to ensure that decisions concerning the investments of the Fund in any market are implemented prudently, taking fully into account the four main criteria for investment, namely, safety, profitability, liquidity and convertibility;

20. Recalls paragraph 22 of section XIII of its resolution 76/246 A, and requests the Secretary-General to provide an update to the General Assembly on efforts being made to diversify its investments among developed, developing and emerging markets, including information on investments by country and geographical region and by currency and asset class, in the context of his next report;

21. Approves an extension of one year for the Secretary-General to conduct trading of derivative instruments, which had not been executed as at 30 September 2022, and requests the Secretary-General to provide an update to the General Assembly on the progress made thus far at its seventy-eighth session;

Other matters

22. Decides to approve the proposed amendment to article 1 of the Regulations of the Pension Fund to allow the restoration of all or partial contributory service in the case of deferred retirement benefits and the proposed new article 24 bis to include in the Regulations of the Fund the restoration of prior contributory service in the case of deferred retirement benefits, as set out in annex III to the report of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Board for 2022;

23. Requests the Pension Board to provide, without prejudice to national law, the requisite framework for extension of the guidelines to allow retrospective recognition of beneficiaries arising from marriages, in cases where changes under national legislation occurred after the time of the former participants' separation from service and they separated prior to the adoption of the revised guidelines in 2016, as appropriate, and requests the Board to report thereon in the context of the next report;

24. Notes that the Pension Fund relies on member organizations' applying the correct pensionable remuneration scales to determine contributions to the Fund, and requests the Pension Fund to provide information in the context of the next report on steps taken in cases where the incorrect pensionable remuneration rate is applied by member organizations of the Pension Fund for purposes of administering the Fund's Regulations;

Budget estimates for 2023

25. Requests the Pension Board to further refine and support effective implementation of key performance indicators and workload drivers of the Pension Administration and the Office of Investment Management in relation to their budget requests;

26. Emphasizes that the aim of reviewing all the general temporary assistance positions of the Fund is not necessarily converting positions into posts, but rather increasing efficiency through the elimination of duplication of functions;

27. Recalls paragraph 14 of the report of the Advisory Committee, and requests the Pension Board to strengthen its efforts to improve budgeting accuracy, including as it pertains to the establishment of vacancy rates;

Pension Administration

28. Recalls paragraph 32 of the report of the Advisory Committee, and decides to adjust the Pension Administration vacancy rate to 6.1 per cent for the Professional and higher categories and 10.1 per cent for the General Service category;
