

4. Suggests that the international conference should be held no later than August 1955 at a place to be determined by the Secretary-General and by the Advisory Committee provided for in paragraph 5 below;

5. Requests the Secretary-General, acting upon the advice of a small committee composed of representatives of Brazil, Canada, France, India, the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and the United States of America, to issue invitations to this conference, to prepare and circulate to all invitees a detailed agenda, and to provide the necessary staff and services;

6. Suggests to the Secretary-General and the above-mentioned Advisory Committee that, in making plans for the international conference, they consult with competent specialized agencies, in particular the Food and Agriculture Organization, the World Health Organization, and the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization;

7. Invites the interested specialized agencies to designate persons to represent them at the conference;

8. Requests that the Secretary-General circulate for information a report on the conference to all Members of the United Nations, and to other Governments and specialized agencies participating in the conference.

503rd plenary meeting,
4 December 1954.

811 (IX). The Korean question

The General Assembly,

Having noted the report⁷ of the United Nations Commission for the Unification and Rehabilitation of Korea signed at Seoul, Korea, on 17 August 1954,

Having received the report⁸ on the Korean Political Conference held in Geneva from 26 April to 15 June 1954, in pursuance of General Assembly resolution 711 (VII) of 28 August 1953,

Noting that the negotiations in Geneva have not resulted in agreement on a final settlement of the Korean question in accordance with the United Nations objectives in Korea,

Recognizing that these objectives should be achieved by peaceful methods and by constructive efforts on the part of the Governments concerned,

Noting that paragraph 62 of the Armistice Agreement⁹ of 27 July 1953 provides that the Agreement "shall remain in effect until expressly superseded either by mutually acceptable amendments and additions or by provision in an appropriate agreement for a peaceful settlement at a political level between both sides",

1. Approves the report on the Korean Political Conference;¹⁰

⁷ Ibid., Ninth Session, Supplement No. 15.

⁸ Ibid., Annexes, agenda item 17, document A/2786.

⁹ See Official Records of the Security Council, Eighth Year, Supplement for July, August and September 1953, document S/3079.

¹⁰ See Official Records of the General Assembly, Ninth Session, Annexes, agenda item 17, document A/2786.

2. Reaffirms that the objectives of the United Nations remain the achievement by peaceful means of a unified, independent and democratic Korea under a representative form of government and the full restoration of international peace and security in the area;

3. Expresses the hope that it will soon prove possible to make progress towards these objectives;

4. Requests the Secretary-General to place the item on the provisional agenda of its tenth session.

510th plenary meeting,
11 December 1954.

812 (IX). The Morocco question

The General Assembly,

Having examined the Moroccan question,

Noting that some delegations declared that negotiations between France and Morocco would be initiated regarding this question,

Expressing confidence that a satisfactory solution will be achieved,

Decides to postpone for the time being further consideration of this item.

514th plenary meeting,
17 December 1954.

813 (IX). The Tunisia question

The General Assembly,

Having considered the Tunisian question,

Noting with satisfaction that the parties concerned have entered into negotiations and that these negotiations are still in progress,

Expressing confidence that the said negotiations will bring about a satisfactory solution,

Decides to postpone for the time being further consideration of this item.

514th plenary meeting,
17 December 1954.

814 (IX). Application, under the auspices of the United Nations, of the principle of equal rights and self-determination of peoples in the case of the population of the Island of Cyprus

The General Assembly,

Considering that, for the time being, it does not appear appropriate to adopt a resolution on the question of Cyprus,

Decides not to consider further the item entitled "Application, under the auspices of the United Nations, of the principle of equal rights and self-determination of peoples in the case of the population of the Island of Cyprus".

514th plenary meeting,
17 December 1954.
