Administrative expenses of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund

The General Assembly,

Having considered the report of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Board on the work of its seventy-fifth session and administrative expenses of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund,¹ the report of the Secretary-General on the administrative and financial implications arising from the report of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Board,² the financial report and audited financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2022 and the report of the Board of Auditors on the Fund³ and the recommendations contained therein, the report of the Chief Executive of Pension Administration and the Representative of the Secretary-General for the investment of the assets of the Fund on the implementation of the recommendations of the Board of Auditors contained in its report for the year ended 31 December 2022 on the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund⁴ and the related report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,⁵

Stresses the need for Member States hosting further sessions of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Board to respect their international obligations as host countries of United Nations offices to prevent discrimination against United Nations officials on the grounds of their nationality.
