At the opening of the session, time will be allowed for opening statements by the Chairs of the regional groups and high-level speakers. These statements are to be made from the podium.

Requests to register a high-level speaker for the opening session may be addressed to the secretariat via email using the contact email address provided in the invitations. Requests should be sent at the latest by noon on Friday, 5 October 2018, as protocol arrangements for the high-level speakers need to be made in advance.

(b) Election of officers

In accordance with rule 22 of the rules of procedure for the Conference, at the opening of each session, a President, eight Vice-Presidents and a Rapporteur are to be elected from among the representatives of the States parties that are present at the session and are to serve as the officers of the session. In electing the officers of the session, each of the five regional groups shall be represented by two officers, one of whom is to be from among the representatives of the States that are parties to the Organized Crime Convention and to one or more, and if possible all, of the Protocols to the Convention. The Bureau shall include at least two representatives of States that are parties to all the instruments.

Thus, at the ninth session, the President of the Conference and one Vice-President is to be nominated by the Group of Western European and other States; the Group of Latin American and Caribbean States is to be asked to nominate one Vice-President and the Rapporteur; and States of the other regions are to be asked to nominate two Vice-Presidents each.

(c) Adoption of the agenda and organization of work

At its eighth session, held in Vienna from 17 to 21 October 2016, the Conference adopted the provisional agenda for its ninth session in decision 8/1 (CTOC/COP/2016/15, chap. I.B).

Also at its eighth session, the Conference adopted decision 8/2 on the organization of the work of the ninth session of the Conference, in which it decided that the ninth session should take place over five working days; that the number of meetings should remain the same as for the previous sessions, that is, 20 meetings, with interpretation in the six official languages of the United Nations; and that a decision should be taken at the end of the ninth session on the duration of the tenth session.

Furthermore, in its decision 6/3 on the organization of work for future sessions of the Conference, the Conference decided that, starting with the seventh session, the firm deadline for the submission of draft resolutions would be two weeks prior to the commencement of the relevant session, and that the deadline for the submission of draft resolutions emanating from the working groups, which meet concurrently with the plenary of the Conference, would be on Thursday at noon, provided that the duration of the session was five working days.

Also in its decision 6/3, the Conference decided that, for future sessions of the Conference, starting with the seventh session, the Conference would be preceded by informal pre-session consultations, without interpretation, to be held on the working day preceding the first day of the Conference, which would provide an opportunity for States to engage in informal consultations on draft resolutions and, inter alia, the provisional agenda for the subsequent session of the Conference.

In accordance with Conference decision 6/3, the firm deadline for the submission of draft resolutions for consideration at the ninth session of the Conference is Monday, 1 October 2018. The informal pre-session consultations will be held on Friday, 12 October 2018. Draft resolutions should be submitted as early as possible in order to enable productive discussions during the pre-session consultations.

At its meeting held on 25 May 2018, the extended Bureau of the Conference agreed on the proposed organization of work of the ninth session of the Conference (see annex).

2. Review of the implementation of the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime and the Protocols thereto

(a) United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime

In its resolution 8/2 on the mechanism for the review of the implementation of the Organized Crime Convention and the Protocols thereto, the Conference recalled that the Convention and its Protocols represented the principal worldwide legal instruments to combat the scourge of transnational organized crime, which affected individuals and societies in all countries, and reaffirmed their importance as the main tools available to the international community for that purpose.

In the same resolution, the Conference reaffirmed that the purpose of the Convention and the Protocols thereto was, inter alia, to promote cooperation to prevent and combat transnational organized crime more effectively, and stressed the need to take additional concerted action to reinforce the implementation of the Convention and the Protocols thereto by States parties and to identify related technical assistance needs.

Also in its resolution 8/2, the Conference decided to continue the process of establishing the mechanism for the review of the implementation of the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime and the Protocols thereto based on the recommendations contained in the report on the open-ended intergovernmental meeting to explore all options regarding an appropriate and effective review mechanism for Convention and the Protocols thereto, held in Vienna on 6 and 7 June 2016.

Furthermore, in the same resolution, the Conference requested the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC) to convene, within existing resources from the regular budget and without prejudice to other mandated activities, at least one open-ended intergovernmental meeting, with interpretation, for the purpose of defining the specific procedures and rules for the functioning of the review mechanism, and invited States parties to remain engaged in the process, including during the intersessional period.

On 11 April 2017, the President of the eighth session of the Conference, Pilar Saborío de Rocafort (Costa Rica), confirmed that she would be chairing the open-ended intergovernmental meeting for the purpose of defining the specific procedures and rules for the functioning of the review mechanism that was to be held in Vienna from 21 to 23 March 2018, with the support of Maria Assunta Accili Sabbatini (Italy), Vice-President of the Conference.

Meetings for the purpose of defining the specific procedures and rules for the functioning of the review mechanism for the Convention and the Protocols thereto have been convened three times in Vienna, from 24 to 26 April 2017, from 30 October to 1 November 2017 and from 21 to 23 March 2018. The reports on those meetings will be made available to the Conference at its ninth session (see CTOC/COP/2018/7).

Under agenda item 2, the Conference will have before it information on the status of ratification of the Convention and the Protocols thereto, and related notifications, declarations and reservations (CTOC/COP/2018/CRP.1).

In addition, also in accordance with the mandate contained in Conference resolution 8/2, the working groups of the Conference have begun preparing self-assessment questionnaires to review the implementation of the Organized Crime Convention and its three Protocols. Further information on that work will be provided in the reports on the meetings of the working groups, which will be made available to the Conference at its ninth session.

(d) Protocol against the Illicit Manufacturing of and Trafficking in Firearms, Their Parts and Components and Ammunition

In its resolution 7/2 on the importance of the Protocol against the Illicit Manufacturing of and Trafficking in Firearms, Their Parts and Components and Ammunition, supplementing the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime, the Conference noted that reducing the illicit manufacturing of and trafficking in firearms, their parts and components and ammunition is one of the major components of the efforts to reduce the violence that accompanies the activities of transnational organized criminal groups, and expressed the conviction that there is a need to strengthen international cooperation and the sharing of information to combat the illicit manufacturing of and trafficking in firearms, their parts and components and ammunition.

Also in resolution 7/2, the Conference recalled that the Convention and, in particular, the Firearms Protocol were among the principal global legal instruments to combat the illicit manufacturing of and trafficking in firearms, their parts and components and ammunition.

In its resolution 8/3, the Conference welcomed the commitment made by Member States in the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development to significantly reduce illicit arms flows in their efforts to promote peaceful and inclusive societies for sustainable development, provide access to justice for all and build effective, accountable and inclusive institutions at all levels.

In the same resolution, the Conference requested UNODC to continue to assist States parties, upon request, in their efforts to strengthen their firearms control regime, consistent with the Firearms Protocol, in particular in the areas of legislative development; firearms identification, seizure, confiscation and disposal; technical support for marking, record-keeping and tracing; and training and capacity-building in the investigation and prosecution of related crimes, with a view to preventing, combating and eradicating the illicit manufacturing of and trafficking in firearms, their parts and components and ammunition.

In addition, in its resolution 7/4, entitled “Implementation of the international cooperation provisions of the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime”, the Conference expressed concern that transnational organized crime had diversified globally and that new and emerging forms required effective responses that depended upon strengthened international cooperation in criminal matters, including through the development of channels for timely cooperation.

Moreover, in its resolution 7/3, the Conference endorsed the recommendation adopted by the Working Group of Government Experts on Technical Assistance at its meeting held from 28 to 30 October 2013 that UNODC, subject to the availability of extrabudgetary resources, should continue the development of technical assistance tools, for the Convention and the Protocols thereto and on specialized issues. In accordance with that recommendation, UNODC has prepared a guide on drafting legislation to combat wildlife crime, which is aimed at facilitating States’ review and amendment of existing legislation and adoption of new legislation to counter wildlife crime in line with the Organized Crime Convention and other relevant international conventions. It is envisaged that the guide will be formally launched during the ninth session of the Conference.

In the same resolution, the Conference strongly encouraged States parties to facilitate engagement between and among central authorities in person, including through regional networks, or by virtual means, and urged States parties, including in collaboration with UNODC, to promote training and technical assistance to facilitate international cooperation under the Convention.
