I. Matters calling for action by the Economic and Social Council

Economic Commission for Asia and the Pacific

1. At its seventy-eighth session, held in Bangkok (hybrid) from 23 to 27 May 2022, the Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific adopted resolution 78/2 on a conference structure of the Commission to advance sustainable development, on the basis of which the following draft resolution is submitted for action by the Economic and Social Council:

Draft resolution

A conference structure of the Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific to advance sustainable development

The Economic and Social Council,

Taking note of Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific resolution 78/2 of 27 May 2022, by which the Commission adopted a conference structure of the Commission to advance sustainable development,

Endorses the conference structure of the Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific to advance sustainable development, as set out in the annex to the present resolution.

Annex

Resolution 78/2

A conference structure of the Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific to advance sustainable development

The Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific,

Recalling its resolution 73/1 of 19 May 2017 on a conference structure of the Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific aligned with the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, in which it decided, inter alia, to conduct a review of its conference structure at its seventy-eighth session, in 2022, with a midpoint review at its seventy-fifth session, in 2019, and requested the Executive Secretary to submit a report in both cases, with a focus on the programme areas of the Commission, which would serve as a basis for that review,

Recalling also its decisions 75/16 of 31 May 2019 on the organization of the annual sessions of the Commission and 75/17 of 31 May 2019 on the review of the conference structure of the Commission,<sup>1</sup>

Recalling further its resolution 74/5 of 16 May 2018 on the transition of the Centre for Alleviation of Poverty through Sustainable Agriculture to an intergovernmental organization outside the United Nations system,

Highlighting the importance of accelerated action to achieve the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development,<sup>2</sup> and emphasizing that the recovery from the coronavirus disease (COVID-19) pandemic provides an opportunity to advance sustainable development in Asia and the Pacific,

Having considered the note by the secretariat on the review of the conference structure of the Commission pursuant to resolution 73/1,<sup>3</sup>

Having also considered the reports of the governing councils of the regional institutions and of the committees, as well as the reports on the Asia-Pacific

Forums on Sustainable Development and the ministerial conferences held since the seventy-third session of the Commission,

1. Decides to revise with immediate effect its conference structure to accelerate the implementation of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, in particular to update the terms of reference and issues to be considered by the committees subsidiary to the Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific, as contained in the annex to the present resolution;

2. Also decides to reconstitute the Committee on Trade and Investment as the Committee on Trade, Investment, Enterprise and Business Innovation, meeting biennially;

3. Recalls its resolutions 48/2 of 23 April 1992 and 64/1 of 30 April 2008 on restructuring the conference structure of the Commission and 69/1 of 1 May 2013 on a conference structure of the Commission for the inclusive and sustainable development of Asia and the Pacific, and decides to rename the Special Body on Least Developed, Landlocked Developing and Pacific Island Developing Countries as the Special Body on Least Developed, Landlocked Developing and Small Island Developing States and to hold the deliberations of the Special Body during the ministerial segment of the Commission sessions;

4. Reaffirms that the conference structure of the Commission shall conform to the pattern outlined in the annex to the present resolution;

5. Requests the Executive Secretary to continue to strengthen and promote cooperation and collaboration among the relevant organizations of the United Nations development system in Asia and the Pacific and other stakeholders, as appropriate, in support of the implementation of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development by members and associate members of the Commission in order to maximize the efficiency and effectiveness of that implementation;

6. Also requests the Executive Secretary to continue to conduct systematic monitoring and evaluation of the conference structure and its congruence with the programme priorities of the Commission with a view to increasing the efficiency, effectiveness and synergies of its work;

7. Decides to conduct a review of its conference structure at its eighty-third session, in 2027, with a midpoint review at its eighty-first session, in 2025, and requests the Executive Secretary to submit to the Commission a report in each instance, with a focus on the programme areas of the Commission, which will serve as a basis for that review.

Annex to resolution 78/2

Conference structure of the Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific

I. Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific

1. The Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific shall meet annually under an overarching theme selected by member States, with each session comprising a senior officials segment followed by a ministerial segment, for a total of five working days, and the duration of each segment shall be decided by the secretariat in consultation with member States, to discuss and decide on important issues pertaining to inclusive and sustainable development in the region, decide on the recommendations of its subsidiary bodies and of the Executive Secretary, review and endorse the proposed strategic framework and programme of work and take any other decisions required in conformity with its terms of reference.

2. Deliberations of the Special Body on Least Developed, Landlocked Developing and Small Island Developing States shall be held for a maximum of one day during the ministerial segment.

3. The Commission session may include a distinguished person's lecture; and high-level representatives of United Nations agencies may be invited to participate in panel discussions held during the session and corporate leaders and civil society organizations may be invited to participate in the session as appropriate, in accordance with the rules of procedure of the Commission.
4. The Informal Working Group on Draft Resolutions of the Advisory Committee of Permanent Representatives and Other Representatives Designated by Members of the Commission, which convenes prior to the Commission session, shall be reconstituted as the Working Group on Draft Resolutions during the senior officials segment and shall have a status commensurate with the Committees of the Whole.
5. The number of simultaneous meetings of the Committees of the Whole, including their commensurate bodies, held during the senior officials segment of the annual session of the Commission shall not exceed two.
6. Draft resolutions shall reflect the substantive deliberations of member States; furthermore, without prejudice to rule 31 of the rules of procedure, members of the Commission intending to submit draft resolutions to the Commission are strongly encouraged to submit them to the Executive Secretary at least one month prior to the commencement of the session of the Commission in order to allow sufficient time for review by members and associate members of the Commission, and the Commission shall not consider draft resolutions submitted within one week of the first day of the Commission session.
7. The report of the Commission will be composed of the decisions and resolutions of the Commission. The draft record of proceedings of the Commission, prepared by the secretariat, will be circulated among members and associate members for comment within 15 days of the conclusion of the session. Members and associate members will be requested to provide comments within 15 days of receiving the draft record of proceedings. The secretariat's final record of proceedings of the Commission session will be issued within two months of the conclusion of the session, taking into account the relevant comments of members and associate members.
8. The Commission shall serve as the regional platform for integrating the sectoral streams of the committees, with a view towards promoting sustainable development equitably through all of its three dimensions.
9. As a general principle and without prejudice to rule 13 of the rules of procedure of the Commission, the Chair of the Commission shall rotate among its five subregions.<sup>4</sup>

II. Subsidiary structure

10. The subsidiary structure of the Commission shall consist of the following nine committees:
  - (a) Committee on Macroeconomic Policy, Poverty Reduction and Financing for Development;
  - (b) Committee on Trade, Investment, Enterprise and Business Innovation;
  - (c) Committee on Transport;
  - (d) Committee on Environment and Development;
  - (e) Committee on Information and Communications Technology, Science, Technology and Innovation;
  - (f) Committee on Disaster Risk Reduction;

<sup>4</sup> The five subregions of the Commission are East and North-East Asia, North and Central Asia, South and South-West Asia, South-East Asia, and the Pacific (A/62/708, para. 321).

- (g) Committee on Social Development;
- (h) Committee on Statistics;
- (i) Committee on Energy.

11. The nine committees shall each meet biennially for a maximum duration of three days for each session, with joint plenary sessions between multiple committees to discuss cross-cutting issues, when possible and desirable.

12. The Commission may mandate a specific committee or multiple committees to meet in the gap year where a particular topic becomes an urgent issue for the region.

13. Within their respective areas of purview, the committees shall:

(a) Review and analyse regional trends in the context of the implementation of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development;

(b) Identify, in consultation with member States, their priorities and emerging issues with regard to resilient, inclusive and sustainable development, and consult on regional approaches, taking into consideration subregional aspects;

(c) Promote regional and, as appropriate, interregional dialogue, including on subregional synergies, and an exchange of experiences on policies and programmes;

(d) Consider common regional positions as inputs to global processes and promote regional follow-up to their outcomes;

(e) Propose issues for consideration by the Commission as the basis for possible resolutions;

(f) Monitor the implementation of Commission resolutions;

(g) Promote a collaborative approach to addressing the development challenges of the region, where appropriate, between Governments and civil society, the private sector, as well as the United Nations and other international organizations at the regional and subregional levels.

14. Further, within their respective areas of purview, the committees shall provide the secretariat, including its regional institutions, with guidance in reviewing the proposed strategic framework and programme of work.

15. The following areas shall be mainstreamed into the work of all committees:

(a) Implementation and monitoring the achievement of the relevant internationally agreed development goals, in particular the Sustainable Development Goals, and a balanced integration of the three dimensions of sustainable development;

(b) Poverty reduction and sustained recovery from large shocks for a more equitable Asia and the Pacific;

(c) Gender equality;

(d) The priority needs of least developed countries, landlocked developing countries and small island developing States;

(e) Science, technology and innovation and, in particular, digital technology for a safe and inclusive digital transformation.

16. Representatives of civil society and the private sector may, upon consultation with member States, be invited to join the Committee sessions as appropriate, in accordance with the rules of procedure of the Commission.

17. The specific issues to be addressed by each of the nine committees in carrying out the above functions are listed in appendix I to the present document.

18. The subsidiary structure of the Commission shall also include the Asia-Pacific Forum on Sustainable Development. The terms of reference of the Forum are listed in appendix II to the present document.

III. Ad hoc ministerial conferences and other intergovernmental meetings

19. Subject to the approval of the Commission, ad hoc ministerial conferences and other intergovernmental meetings may be organized on specific and cross-sectoral issues.

20. No more than 8 ad hoc ministerial conferences and other intergovernmental meetings shall be held in addition to the regular calendar of intergovernmental meetings during each biennium, and the total number of days shall not exceed 16, unless the Commission decides otherwise.

21. In those years when a ministerial conference or intergovernmental meeting is held covering issues normally discussed in a committee, the corresponding committee need not be convened. Subject to the approval of the Commission, a committee may be convened at the ministerial level on an ad hoc basis to ensure high-level engagement on the issues to be addressed.

IV. Advisory Committee of Permanent Representatives and Other Representatives Designated by Members of the Commission

22. The functions of the Advisory Committee of Permanent Representatives and Other Representatives Designated by Members of the Commission shall be in accordance with the terms of reference contained in appendix III to the present document.

23. The Advisory Committee may, if necessary, establish its own working groups on consideration of specific issues.

24. The Advisory Committee shall meet with sufficient frequency both in formal and informal meetings on topical subjects, especially prior to the Commission session. The number of formal meetings of the Advisory Committee per calendar year shall not be less than 6 or more than 12. Any additional meetings, formal or informal, will be held in consultation with the Advisory Committee and the Executive Secretary and may not require documentation by the secretariat, unless otherwise requested by the Advisory Committee.

25. Should the need arise to seek the views of United Nations entities or other intergovernmental organizations on subjects of interest to the Advisory Committee, members of the Advisory Committee can, if consensus has been reached, request the secretariat to invite representatives of particular United Nations entities or other intergovernmental organizations to attend a subsequent session of the Advisory Committee.

26. The Advisory Committee shall periodically review the work of subregional offices and regional institutions and actively follow up and report on the implementation of resolutions by member States. The secretariat shall facilitate the reporting on resolutions by preparing the requisite guidelines and templates.

V. Regional institutions under the auspices of the Commission

27. The following institutions under the auspices of the Commission shall continue to function as prescribed in their respective statutes and terms of reference:

- (a) Asian and Pacific Centre for Transfer of Technology;
- (b) Statistical Institute for Asia and the Pacific;
- (c) Centre for Sustainable Agricultural Mechanization;

(d) Asian and Pacific Training Centre for Information and Communication Technology for Development;

(e) Asian and Pacific Centre for the Development of Disaster Information Management.

28. The Commission may constitute additional regional institutions that support the achievement of its strategic and programmatic objectives.

VI. General provisions

A. Rules of procedure

29. Unless otherwise specified by the Commission, the rules of procedure of the Commission, including those pertaining to the decision-making process, shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to the committees and other meetings and conferences convened under its conference structure.

B. Informal session

30. An informal session among the heads of delegations during the ministerial segment of each Commission session may be organized but shall not be institutionalized. The agenda of the informal session shall be decided by consensus and the annotated agenda shall reach members at least 30 days before the opening of the session to ensure the efficiency and effectiveness of the session. Simultaneous interpretation shall be provided.

Appendix I

Issues to be addressed by committees subsidiary to the Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific

The issues listed below are the primary issues to be addressed by each committee. The Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific may adjust the list of issues for any committee at any time, as appropriate; the committees shall likewise retain the flexibility to address new or emerging issues brought to their attention by the secretariat, upon consultation with member States.

1. Committee on Macroeconomic Policy, Poverty Reduction and Financing for Development:

  - (d) Assess and review implications of the energy transition.

Appendix II

Terms of reference of the Asia-Pacific Forum on Sustainable Development

I. Overall functions

1. The Asia-Pacific Forum on Sustainable Development is an annual, inclusive intergovernmental forum. It supports preparations for the high-level political forum on sustainable development in the context of both the Economic and Social Council and the General Assembly.
2. The Forum will serve as a regional platform for:
  - (a) Supporting countries, in particular countries with special needs, including through enhancing their capacity for implementation of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development;
  - (b) Providing a regional perspective on the implementation of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development by identifying regional trends, and consolidating and sharing best practices and lessons learned, taking into account the contributions of other United Nations system bodies at the regional level, other regional and subregional organizations and relevant stakeholders;
  - (c) Supporting follow-up and review of progress on the 2030 Agenda and the Sustainable Development Goals at the regional level through: assessing progress and providing opportunities for peer learning related to the theme and goals that will be reviewed at the high-level political forum; supporting the presentation of voluntary national reviews; and undertaking periodic reviews of progress of the road map for implementing the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development in Asia and the Pacific.

3. These functions will benefit from inter-agency support, including through the United Nations Asia-Pacific Regional Coordination Mechanism.

II. Conduct of the Forum

4. As part of the conference structure of the Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific, the Forum will be convened annually as an inclusive intergovernmental forum ahead of the high-level political forum. The theme of the Forum should be consistent with that of the high-level political forum and the cluster of goals to be reviewed in depth should be identical to the cluster of goals under the high-level political forum.

5. The Forum will not get ahead of or prejudice the decisions of the high-level political forum, increase the reporting burden of member States or increase the regular budget of the Commission beyond what has already been approved by the General Assembly.

6. The current format, including the election of the Bureau for each session, could be maintained and provide space for multi-stakeholder engagement for implementation of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development in consultation, as appropriate, with member States.

7. The outcome of the Forum will be in the form of a report with a Chair's summary annexed to the report.

8. The Forum may consider subregional perspectives on the themes addressed by the Forum. Preparatory meetings of stakeholders may be convened, within existing resources.

9. The Forum, including stakeholder engagement, will be conducted in accordance with the rules of procedure of the Commission as well as the modalities of the high-level political forum under the auspices of the Economic and Social Council, as long as there is no conflict between them.

10. During each session, a member of the Bureau of the previous session could report on the discussions at the intervening high-level political forum and on the conclusions of the previous session of the Forum.

11. The conduct of the Forum will avoid duplication with other regional forums and platforms; in the interest of efficiency, where appropriate, the Forum will be convened in coordination or collaboration with other forums and platforms.

III. Relationship of the Forum with the conference structure of the Commission

12. The report of the Forum as defined in paragraph 7 will be brought to the attention of the subsequent session of the Commission by the Chair or Vice-Chair of the Forum.

13. The Forum could receive inputs from the committees that are subsidiary to the Commission as well as other relevant stakeholders.

14. The Forum could benefit from advice provided by the Advisory Committee of Permanent Representatives and Other Representatives Designated by Members of the Commission as a modality for consulting member States between sessions of the Forum.

15. In the years when the high-level political forum meets under the auspices of the General Assembly at the summit level, which is every four years, the Forum may converge with the Commission session in April/May, and the Commission and the Forum will share the same theme, where appropriate. In other years, when the high-level political forum meets under the auspices of the Economic and Social Council, the Forum shall meet at the senior technical level.

16. If requested by member States, the terms of reference of the Forum may be revised upon recommendation of the Forum and endorsement by the Commission, taking into account new inputs from the high-level political forum and based on periodic reviews by member States.

Appendix III
Terms of reference of the Advisory Committee of Permanent Representatives and Other Representatives Designated by Members of the Commission

The Advisory Committee of Permanent Representatives and Other Representatives Designated by Members of the Commission shall have the following functions:

(a) To strengthen close cooperation and consultation between the member States and the secretariat, including by providing advice and guidance to be taken into account by the Executive Secretary while undertaking the respective activities;

(b) To serve as a deliberative forum for substantive exchange of views and provide guidance on the formulation of the agenda of the Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific and in connection with economic and social developments that have an impact on the Asia-Pacific region;

(c) To advise and guide the Executive Secretary in drawing up proposals for the strategic framework, programme of work and theme topics for sessions of the Commission consistent with the guidance provided by the Commission;

(d) To receive, on a regular basis, information on the administrative and financial functioning of the Commission;

(e) To advise and guide the Executive Secretary in monitoring and evaluating the implementation of the Commission's programme of work and resource allocation;

(f) To review the draft calendar of meetings prior to its submission to the Commission at its annual session;

(g) To advise and guide the Executive Secretary on the provisional agenda of sessions of the Commission and committees subsidiary to the Commission, consistent with the need to ensure a results-oriented and focused agenda that is aligned with the development priorities of member States, as defined by them, as well as chapter II of its rules of procedure;

(h) To advise and guide the Executive Secretary on the identification of emerging economic and social issues and other relevant issues for incorporation into the provisional agendas and on the formulation of the annotated provisional agendas of Commission sessions;

(i) To be informed of collaborations and related arrangements between the secretariat and other international and regional organizations, in particular on long-term cooperation programmes and joint initiatives, including those to be proposed by the Executive Secretary and conducted under the aegis of the Regional Coordination Mechanism;

(j) To carry out any other tasks entrusted to it by the Commission.

II. Matters brought to the attention of the Economic and Social Council

A. Economic Commission for Africa

2. At its fifty-fourth session, held in Dakar (hybrid) on 16 and 17 May 2022, the Economic Commission for Africa Conference of African Ministers of Finance, Planning and Economic Development adopted the following 10 resolutions and a decision, summaries of which are set out below for the attention of the Economic and Social Council.

Resolution 982 (LIV)

Financing the recovery of Africa and beyond

3. In the resolution, the Conference of African Ministers of Finance, Planning and Economic Development called upon the Economic Commission for Africa to continue to provide thought leadership and technical support in the deliberations of the newly established high-level working group on a new global financial architecture that works for Africa and to serve as its secretariat, to support the extension of the Debt Service Suspension Initiative for two more years, and to facilitate the operationalization of the Liquidity and Sustainability Facility launched by the Commission.

4. The Commission was also requested to assist countries and facilitate their issuance of green, blue and Sustainable Development Goal-linked bonds, to advocate and mobilize support for the reallocation of special drawing rights, and to create an African credit rating agency in collaboration with the African Union Commission.

Resolution 983 (LIV)

Importance of digital transformation for breaking new ground

5. In the resolution, the Commission was requested to further support the development of digital identity capacity across the African continent, to continue its pursuit of initiatives that enhance the participation of women and girls in digital transformation strategies, and to support the implementation of the Lomé Declaration on Cybersecurity and the Fight against Cybercrime.

6. The Commission was also requested, in collaboration with its partners, to support member States in devising additional innovative mechanisms for the financing and implementation of digital transformation strategies and to expedite efforts to support the development of digital trade on the African continent to accelerate the operationalization of the African Continental Free Trade Area.

Resolution 984 (LIV)

Role of Partnerships for African Vaccine Manufacturing in improving African health outcomes

7. In the resolution, the Conference of Ministers welcomed the launch of Partnerships for African Vaccine Manufacturing by the African Union Commission and the Africa Centres for Disease Control and Prevention at the high-level online summit held on 12 and 13 April 2021.

8. The Commission, regional and international financial institutions, the private sector and other partners were requested to mobilize financing to achieve the target of Partnerships for African Vaccine Manufacturing of fulfilling 60 per cent of the continent's vaccine demand through local production by 2040, and the Commission was requested to work with partners to develop an African Union model law on pooled procurement, and to support its member States to ensure a commercially viable and financially sustainable vaccine manufacturing sector in Africa.

Resolution 985 (LIV)

Updated strategic directions, the medium-term programme framework (2022–2025) and the 2023 programme plan and budget

9. In the resolution, the Conference of Ministers noted that the medium-term programme framework (2022–2025) formulated by the Commission was in line with the development priorities and aspirations of Africa, with a focus on transformations necessary to accelerate the attainment of the Sustainable Development Goals that are contained in the 2030 Agenda and the implementation of Agenda 2063, and alignment with proposals contained in the report of the Secretary-General entitled “Our Common Agenda”.

10. The resolution conveyed the approval by the Commission of the medium-term programme framework (2022–2025) and adoption of its 2023 programme plan and budget.

Resolution 986 (LIV)

Data and statistics

11. In the resolution, the Conference of Ministers recognized the progress made on the transformation and modernization of national statistical systems in Africa, and called upon States members of the Commission to continue to support work on the transformation and modernization of official statistics by the African group created by the Statistical Commission for Africa of the Economic Commission for Africa, and to adopt and implement a national statistical system transformation and modernization road map.

12. The Conference of Ministers called upon Governments, entities of the United Nations system and development partners to support Commission member States that had not undertaken a census in the 2020 round to undertake censuses before the end of 2024 and to support the implementation of the fully technologically-driven censuses during the 2030 round (2025–2034); and requested the Commission to work towards mobilizing special funding to assist member States facing financial challenges in the development of their statistical and data systems.

Resolution 987 (LIV)

Support by the Economic Commission for Africa for least developed countries in the context of the Fifth United Nations Conference on the Least Developed Countries

13. In the resolution, the Conference of Ministers took note of the Doha Programme of Action for the Least Developed Countries, adopted at the Fifth United Nations Conference on the Least Developed Countries on 17 March 2022 and endorsed by the General Assembly on 1 April 2022, wherein commitments between the least developed countries and their development partners, including the private sector, civil society and governments at all levels, were renewed and strengthened.

14. The Conference of Ministers requested the Commission to report on the progress made by African least developed countries in their implementation of the Doha Programme of Action, to deploy all appropriate tools and resources to support evidence-based planning, macroeconomic policymaking and debt management in African least developed countries, and to continue to support the least developed African countries in the implementation and monitoring of internationally agreed frameworks.

Resolution 988 (LIV)*Scaling up investment in transport to optimize the benefits of the African Continental Free Trade Area

15. In the resolution, the Conference of Ministers recognized the important role of the African Continental Free Trade Area in the socioeconomic development and transformation of Africa, and that its effective implementation required adequate cross-border transport infrastructure and services.

16. The Conference of Ministers acknowledged the contribution of key regional initiatives, such as the Programme for Infrastructure Development in Africa and the Single African Air Transport Market, to modernizing and expanding existing national and regional transport networks.

17. The Conference of Ministers called upon the Commission to continue to support its member States in implementing the Programme for Infrastructure Development in Africa and the Single African Air Transport Market, and in mobilizing financial resources for the upgrading of transport links that are critical to the implementation of the African Continental Free Trade Area.

Resolution 989 (LIV)*Carbon certification

18. In the resolution, the Conference of Ministers recalled the request made in March 2022 by States members of the Commission in the Kigali Declaration, inter alia, on the operationalization of carbon market programmes and for building the capacity of the countries of the Congo basin to deliver funding for sustainable development through the Blue Fund for the Congo Basin.

19. The Conference of Ministers called upon the Commission to provide technical and advisory support to its member States that were interested in implementing carbon certification and accreditation processes, assessing the carbon sequestration potential of their natural assets and accounting and reporting of greenhouse gas emission reduction processes, requested the Commission to develop, in collaboration with regional development banks, a strategy for mobilizing financial resources, building on the opportunity presented by the issuance of carbon credits.

Resolution 990 (LIV)*Curbing illicit financial flows and recovery of lost assets

20. In the resolution, the Conference of Ministers called upon the international community to undertake appropriate actions to ensure that illicit financial flows are treated as a system-wide challenge at the global level and that a mechanism for global coordination is adopted to systematically monitor illicit financial flows.

21. The secretariat of the Commission, working with its partners, was requested to build the capacity of Commission member States, especially in tax policy and administration, international tax cooperation, the countering of money-laundering, corruption prevention and related enforcement measures, asset recovery and return, and natural resource governance.

22. The Conference of Ministers also called upon the secretariat and other partners to build the capacity of African countries to tackle the gaps in institutional architecture, with a view to developing their ability to track, measure and report on the evolution of illicit financial flows under Sustainable Development Goal indicator 16.4.1, and to devise measures to curb illicit financial flows; and called upon the United Nations to begin negotiations under its auspices on an international convention on tax matters, with the participation of all Member States and relevant stakeholders.

Resolution 991 (LIV)
Culture and heritage management programme

23. In the resolution, the Conference of Ministers called upon the Commission to continue to support the heritage management programme with the aim of contributing to the continental initiatives that promote the cultural and creative industries as a lever for sustainable development.

24. The Commission was also urged to continue to encourage its member States to accelerate efforts to recognize and acknowledge the economic potential of their heritage resources and provide a significant portion of their budget for their protection, management and development; and to continue to engage key institutions on the African continent and the international organizations involved in the management, development and financing of the arts, culture and heritage sector.

Decision A (LIV)
Date, venue and theme of the fifty-fifth session of the Economic Commission for Africa

25. The fifty-fifth session of the Economic Commission for Africa would be held in Addis Ababa in 2023 on a date in March or April under the theme “Fostering recovery and transformation in Africa to reduce inequalities and vulnerabilities”. The deliberations at the fifty-fifth session would offer an opportunity to reflect on the sixtieth anniversary of the establishment of the Organization of African Unity (now the African Union) and the completion of the first 10-year implementation plan (2014–2023) of Agenda 2063.

B. Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific

26. At its seventy-eighth session, held in Bangkok (hybrid) from 23 to 27 May 2022, the Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific adopted the following three resolutions, summaries of which are set out below for the attention of the Economic and Social Council.

Resolution 78/1
Bangkok Declaration Commemorating the Seventy-fifth Anniversary of the Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific: A Common Agenda to Advance Sustainable Development in Asia and the Pacific

27. In the Bangkok Declaration Commemorating the Seventy-fifth Anniversary of the Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific: A Common Agenda to Advance Sustainable Development in Asia and the Pacific, the Commission recognized the historic significance of its seventy-eighth session in the year that marks the seventy-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Commission. In the Declaration, the Commission further celebrated a period of seven and a half decades during which its membership had grown from 10 in 1947 to 62 in 2022 and during which the region had made extraordinary socioeconomic progress, in the spirit of unity, solidarity and multilateralism and international cooperation.

28. In the Declaration, the Commission recognized the need to address outstanding and emerging development challenges of persisting poverty and inequalities, vulnerability to shocks, natural disasters and climate change and environmental degradation, and reaffirmed the commitment to accelerate progress towards a more equal, more resilient and more sustainable world and the full implementation of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development.

29. Through the Declaration, the Commission requested the Executive Secretary to reinvigorate the role of the Commission as a regional development platform by identifying, advocating and analysing innovative, integrated, action-oriented and multisectoral approaches to address sustainable development challenges, coordinating region-wide inclusive policy dialogues, in close collaboration with the rest of the United Nations development system, and engaging relevant stakeholders, as appropriate, in order to respond effectively to the changing and emerging needs of the region, and taking into account national considerations.
