2001/... Human rights situation of the Lebanese detainees in Israel

The Commission on Human Rights,

Taking note of the report of the Secretary-General on the implementation of Security Council resolutions 425 (1978) and 426 (1978) (S/2000/460), in particular paragraphs 7, 8, 12, 14, 16, 21 and 48, endorsed by the Security Council (S/PRST/2000/18),

Gravely concerned at the persistent violation by Israel of the principles of international law regarding the protection of human rights, in particular those contained in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, as well as the grave violation of the relevant provisions of international humanitarian law contained in the Geneva Convention relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War, of 12 August 1949 and the Additional Protocols thereto,

* In accordance with rule 69, paragraph 3, of the rules of procedure of the functional commissions of the Economic and Social Council.

Censuring breaches by Israel of the sovereignty and territorial integrity of Lebanon,
Hoping that the efforts to implement the Security Council resolutions on the occupied Arab territories, including resolutions 242 (1967) of 22 November 1967 and 338 (1973) of 22 October 1973, and to achieve peace in the Middle East will put an end to the violations of human rights being committed by Israel and that the peace negotiations will be resumed and conducted with a view to reaching a just and comprehensive peace in the region,

Gravely concerned about the tens of thousands of landmines left behind by Israel in southern Lebanon, which have so far caused tens of deaths and injuries to civilians, including women and children,

Deploing the failure of the Government of Israel to submit maps showing the deployment of those landmines,

Condemning the persistent detention, ill-treatment and torture by Israel of many Lebanese civilians who were abducted and detained in Lebanon and subsequently transferred to prisons in Israel,

Expressing its indignation at the ruling handed down on 4 March 1998 by the Supreme Court of Israel permitting the Israeli authorities to retain Lebanese detainees in Israeli prisons without trial and to hold them as hostages and for bargaining purposes and the recent renewal of their incommunicado detention, which constitutes a flagrant violation of the principles of human rights,

Reaffirming its resolution 2000/16 of 18 April 2000, and expressing its deep regret at the failure of the Government of Israel to implement that resolution fully,

1. Calls upon the Government of Israel to comply with the Geneva Conventions relating to the protection of victims of war, of 12 August 1949 and the Additional Protocols thereto;
2. Also calls upon the Government of Israel to refrain from holding the detained Lebanese citizens incarcerated in its prisons as hostages for bargaining purposes and to release them immediately, in compliance with all the Geneva Conventions of 12 August 1949 and other provisions of international law;
3. Affirms the obligation of Israel to commit itself to allowing the International Committee of the Red Cross to visit the detainees regularly, as well as to allowing other international humanitarian organizations to do so and to verify their sanitary and humanitarian conditions and, in particular, the circumstances of their detention;

4. Further calls upon the Government of Israel to submit to the United Nations Interim Force in Lebanon all the maps of the landmine fields deployed throughout the civilian villages, fields and farms, causing casualties among civilians, including children and women, and obstructing the resumption of normal life in the area;

5. Requests the Secretary-General:

(a) To bring the present resolution to the attention of the Government of Israel and to call upon the Government to comply with its provisions;

(b) To report to the General Assembly at its fifty-sixth session and to the Commission at its fifty-eighth session on the results of his efforts in this regard;

6. Decides to continue its consideration of the situation of the Lebanese detainees in Israel at its fifty-eighth session.
