Executive Board

Second regular session 2019

11–13 September 2019

Item 5 (b) of the provisional agenda*

Extensions of ongoing country programmes

Note by the secretariat

Summary

In accordance with Executive Board decision 2009/11, this note informs the Executive Board of the two-month extension of the country programme for Paraguay, and the first one-year extensions of the country programmes for Guatemala, Madagascar and the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, all approved by the Executive Director.

This note further presents the reasons for the proposed two-month extension of the country programme for Cuba, following a previous one-year extension; and the proposed nine-month extension of the country programme for the Syrian Arab Republic, following two previous one-year extensions. The Executive Board is requested to approve these programme extensions.

Draft decision

The Executive Board

1. Takes note of the two-month extension of the country programme for Paraguay, and the first one-year extensions of the country programmes for Guatemala, Madagascar and the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, which were approved by the Executive Director and are presented in table 1;

2. Approves the two-month extension of the country programme for Cuba, following a previous one-year extension; and the nine-month extension of the country programme for the Syrian Arab Republic, following two previous one-year extensions, as presented in table 2.

* E/ICEF/2019/21.

Note: The present document was processed in its entirety by UNICEF.

Guatemala	2015–2019	December 2020 (one-year extension)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>– A one-year extension will enable UNICEF to develop its new CPD in full alignment with the new UNSDCF guidance.</li> <li>– The new UNSDCF, to be developed after a period of familiarization and consultation with government and civil society partners following the release of the new UNSDCF guidance, will align with the National Development Plan, which spans 2014–2032.</li> </ul>
Madagascar	March 2015–December 2019	December 2020 (one-year extension)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>– A one-year extension will enable UNICEF to align the CPD with the extension of the present UNDAF until the end of 2020, which has been requested by the Government of Madagascar to more closely align the UNDAF with the country's National Development Plan (Émergence 2030).</li> <li>– The new UNSDCF can be developed with the full participation of the newly formed Government and based on the evidence provided by new data sources, including the multiple indicator cluster surveys.</li> <li>– Except for marginal alignment of results, strategies, enablers and resources to the Strategic Plan, 2018–2021, the priorities, assumptions and strategies that underpin the current country programme remain unchanged.</li> </ul>
Paraguay	2015–2019	February 2020 (two-month extension)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>– A two-month extension will enable UNICEF to develop its new CPD in full alignment with the new UNSDCF guidance for Paraguay, which is expected to be finalized towards the end of 2019.</li> <li>– Except for marginal alignment of results, strategies, enablers and resources to the Strategic Plan, 2018–2021, the priorities, assumptions and strategies that underpin the current country programme remain unchanged.</li> </ul>
Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela	2015–2019	December 2020 (one-year extension)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>– A one-year extension will enable UNICEF to design a relevant, fit-for-context country programme document (CPD) and to make a deliberate, meaningful transition to alignment with the logic and content of the new United Nations Sustainable Development Cooperation Framework (UNSDCF). This will contribute to the overall aid effectiveness of United Nations development cooperation in an evolving country context.</li> </ul>
