CABLEGRAM DATED 10 JANUARY 1949 FROM THE CHAIRMAN OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL
TRUCE COMMISSION ADDRESSED TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL
TRANSMITTING A MESSAGE FROM THE MAYOR OF JERUSALEM CONCERNING THE BOMBING OF JERUSALEM

"Holy City of Jerusalem whose safety is at heart of entire world and which even enemy of mankind Nazi Germany dared not attack during World War was subjected twice to indiscriminate bombing by Egyptian planes which hit residential quarters including charitable and medical institutions. Municipal Council of Jerusalem ~~strongly~~ protests against this barbaric action and demands United Nations and civilized world to take immediate strong action against violation of sanctity of city and prevent recurrence of outrage.

(Signed) Daniel Auster, Mayor of Jerusalem"

My colleagues and I are of the opinion that prompt action for the demilitarization of Jerusalem would eliminate any pretext for the recurrence of such attacks.

(Signed) Nieuwenhuys
