NOTE BY THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

At its 100th and 106th meetings on 12 and 17 December 1979, the General Assembly adopted resolutions 34/93 A to R* on the policies of apartheid of the Government of South Africa.

In paragraph 14 of resolution 34/93 A, the General Assembly

"Requests the Security Council urgently to consider mandatory economic sanctions against the racist régime of South Africa and take action, under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations, to bring about the total cessation of:

- "(a) Any military or nuclear collaboration with South Africa;
- "(b) Supplies of petroleum, petroleum products or other strategic materials to South Africa;
- "(c) Loans to, and investments in, South Africa;
- "(d) Guarantees or other inducements for investments in South Africa;
- "(e) Tariff and other preferences for imports from South Africa;
- "(f) All trade with South Africa;"

In paragraphs 1 and 2 of resolution 34/93 D, the General Assembly

"1. Again requests the Security Council to declare that any military or nuclear collaboration with South Africa constitutes a threat to international peace and security and urgently to take mandatory measures, under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations, to end all military and nuclear collaboration with the apartheid régime and all supplies of materials or technology to or from South Africa which may be used for military purposes or for the development of nuclear-weapon capability;

* Not reproduced in the present document; for the full text see A/RES/34/93.

"2. Again requests the Security Council to take mandatory measures to ensure that all States:

"(a) Shall revoke all licences granted to South Africa for the manufacture of arms and equipment;

"(b) Shall prohibit corporations under their jurisdiction from any involvement in the manufacture in South Africa of arms and related equipment for the use of the military and police forces, and in the transfer of technology and capital for that purpose;

"(c) Shall terminate the exchange of military, air, naval and scientific attachés with the apartheid régime;

"(d) Shall prohibit the supply of aircraft, aircraft engines, aircraft parts, electronic and telecommunications equipment and computers to South Africa;

"(e) Shall take effective legislative and other measures to prevent the recruitment, training and transit of mercenaries for assistance to the apartheid régime, and to punish such mercenaries;"

In paragraph 1 of resolution 34/93 E, the General Assembly

"Requests the Security Council urgently to consider mandatory measures to prevent the racist régime of South Africa from detonating, developing or acquiring nuclear weapons, and to warn that the acquisition or testing of nuclear weapons by it would be met with enforcement action under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations;"

In paragraph 3 of resolution 34/93 F, the General Assembly

"Requests the Security Council to consider urgently a mandatory embargo on the supply of petroleum and petroleum products to South Africa under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations;"

In resolution 34/93 Q, the General Assembly

"Again urges the Security Council to consider the matter at an early date with a view to taking effective steps to achieve the cessation of further foreign investments in, and financial loans to, South Africa."
