NOTE BY THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

At the 91st plenary meeting of its thirty-sixth session, on 9 December 1981, the General Assembly adopted resolution 36/97, entitled "General and complete disarmament".* In the operative part of resolution 36/97 K, the General Assembly

"1. Calls upon all States to take prompt action for the implementation of General Assembly resolution 35/156 J, which would render effective the decisions of the Security Council in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations and thereby be conducive to meaningful disarmament negotiations;

"2. Deems it necessary, as a first step in this direction, that the Security Council take the required measures towards the implementation of Chapter VII of the Charter, which would reinforce the foundations of peace, security and order through the United Nations and avert the growing threat of nuclear conflagration".
