Enclosure

Monthly report to the United Nations on operations of the Stabilization Force (SFOR)

1. Over the reporting period (1-31 May 2001) there were just over 21,400 troops deployed in Bosnia and Herzegovina and Croatia, with contributions from all of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) allies and from 15 non-NATO countries.
2. During the period under review, SFOR support was required during two violent incidents which occurred during ceremonies for the reconstruction of mosques in Trebinje and Banja Luka. In addition, activities relating to the so-called third entity issue continued to require the attention of SFOR.
3. The first of the two violent incidents took place in Trebinje on 5 May when a ceremony for the reconstruction of the Osman Pasa mosque was interrupted. The ceremony was cancelled after a public demonstration by Bosnian Serbs turned violent. SFOR support was requested by the Office of the High Representative (OHR) and the local authorities. A representative of OHR suffered a slight head injury.
4. The second incident took place in Banja Luka on 7 May during a ceremony to mark the laying of the foundation stone on the site of the Ferhadija mosque. Violent clashes occurred when 2,000 Bosnian Serbs rioted and threw tear gas grenades, stones and eggs at Bosniacs and high-ranking international officials. Some of the officials were trapped in the Islamic Community building and were eventually freed, with some help from the Prime Minister of the Republika Srpska. Thirty people were injured in the clashes, one of whom later died from his injuries, and seven buses were burned. Although SFOR forces were present to support the local police, they had been asked not to intervene since the local police had primary responsibility for security. The local police have so far identified 34 members of the crowd responsible for some of the violent incidents. Thirteen have received 7-20 days in prison, and another 21 are awaiting sentencing on serious charges.
5. A similar ceremony for the reconstruction of a mosque planned to take place in Stolac on 13 May was postponed. At least six other ceremonies are planned over the summer months.
6. Other incidents included the explosion of two bombs on the night of 15-16 May in the Bosnian Croat pocket of Vitez, one in the premises of the Social Democratic Party in Vitez and the other in the premises of the New Croat Initiative (NHI) in Novi Travnik. Although there was extensive damage, there were no casualties.
7. During the reporting period, SFOR continued operations to ensure a safe and secure environment throughout Bosnia and Herzegovina to counter actions of the Croat National Assembly/Croatian Democratic Union (HNS/HDZ) to create a third entity and to support loyal Croat elements of the Federation Army. On 14 May, SFOR disarmed some guards in Kiseljac disloyal to the Federation and handed over the Matolucic Maturica barracks to a guard force loyal to the Federation.
8. The situation may be beginning to normalize, however. On 16 May, the Federation Defence Minister concluded an agreement for the re-registering within 15 days of about 7,000 soldiers and officers who walked out in support of the creation of a third entity in March.

9. On 21 May, SFOR began operations in support of the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe (OSCE) to account for all equipment limited by article IV of the Dayton Peace Agreement stored in weapons storage sites located throughout Bosnia and Herzegovina.

10. SFOR continues to assist the local police and the International Police Task Force (IPTF) in monitoring the situation in the Sarajevo suburb of Dobrinja.

11. SFOR troops continued to conduct reconnaissance and surveillance operations, using ground and air patrols. Other operations included area security, monitoring the border with the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia, monitoring the Entity Armed Forces (EAF), conducting weapons storage site inspections, providing support to the international organizations in theatre, and collecting weapons and ammunition in the framework of Operation HARVEST.

Cooperation and compliance by the Parties

12. The situation in theatre remained relatively calm throughout the reporting period, with the entities in substantial compliance with the military provisions of the Peace Agreement.

13. Over the period, SFOR troops conducted 180 weapons storage site inspections: 70 Bosnian Serb, 40 Bosniac, 19 Bosnian Croat and 51 Federation.

14. SFOR troops monitored 427 training and movement activities: 291 Bosnian Serb; 86 Bosniac; 2 Bosnian Croat; and 48 Federation.

15. Over the period, a total of 445 mine-clearing activities were conducted: 145 Bosnian Serb, 180 Bosniac, 112 Bosnian Croat, and 8 Federation.

Cooperation with international organizations

16. Within capabilities and in accordance with its mandate, SFOR continues to provide assistance to the international organizations in theatre, including the United Nations Mission in Bosnia and Herzegovina (UNMIBH), IPTF, OHR, the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia (ICTY), OSCE and the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR).

17. SFOR continues to support the efforts of OHR to establish common institutions in Bosnia and Herzegovina and to monitor the situation in Dobrinja, and guard OHR offices in Mostar West and Trebinje.

18. SFOR continues to provide assistance to UNHCR in its efforts to encourage returns and to re-house refugees and assist non-governmental organizations and other international organizations on a variety of projects.

Outlook

19. Although the overall security situation in Bosnia and Herzegovina remains under control, there is some tension due to the effects of HNS/HDZ activities to achieve a third entity and to protests against the rebuilding of mosques.
