Identical letters dated 21 October 2013 from the Permanent Representative of Kenya to the United Nations addressed to the Secretary-General and the President of the Security Council

Further to decision No. Ext/Assembly/AU/Dec.1 (Oct.2013) adopted at the Extraordinary Session of the Assembly of the African Union on 12 October 2013 (see annex, enclosure 3), Kenya is under guidance to forward to the United Nations Security Council a request for deferral under Article 16 of the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court.

Kenya seeks a decision by the United Nations Security Council that no investigations or prosecution shall be commenced or proceeded with in regard to the cases relating to the situation in the Republic of Kenya, namely, ICC-01/09-01/11, with effect from the date of a decision by the Security Council on this request.

This request under Article 16 of the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court is being made:

1. In view of the threat to the peace, breach of the peace or act of aggression likely to arise in the light of the prevailing and continuing terrorist threat existing in the Horn of Africa and East Africa;
2. In order to prevent an aggravation of the situation with regard to the peace and security of Kenya and its neighbouring countries;
3. In order to provide time during the term of the deferral, for Kenya, in consultation with the Court and Assembly of States Parties to the Rome Statute, to consider how best to respond to the threat to international peace and security in the context of the Kenyan situation.

Kenya therefore seeks action by the Security Council to prevent the aggravation of the threat, breach of the peace or act of aggression that the terrorism menace poses to national, regional, continental and international peace and security.

I would request you to have this letter and its annex issued as a document of the Council, as a matter of urgency.

BC/OLC/2013

Addis Ababa, 12 October 2013

Mr. President,

As you are aware, the 21st Ordinary Session of the Assembly of Heads of State and Government of the African Union was held on 26 and 27 May 2013 in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia. At the said session, the Assembly adopted Decision Assembly/AU/Dec.482 (XXI) on International Jurisdiction, Justice and the International Criminal Court (ICC), a copy of which is attached herewith.

Pursuant to the above-mentioned decision, the Assembly expressed, inter alia, its concerns over the proceedings initiated by ICC against the President and the Deputy President of the Republic of Kenya, which may pose a threat to the ongoing efforts in the promotion of peace, national healing and reconciliation, as well as the rule of law and stability in Kenya and the Region.

The Assembly also deeply regretted that the requests by Kenya and subsequently the African Union to the United Nations (UN) Security Council to defer the proceedings initiated against the President and Deputy President of the Republic of Kenya, in conformity with Article 16 of the Rome Statute of ICC on deferral of cases by the UN Security Council, were not acted upon.

In that regard, we, the Member States of the African Union (AU) hereby solicit the cooperation of the UN Security Council, with a view to finding a sustainable solution to the issue, and in particular, ensuring that the African Union Member States request for a deferral of the ICC investigations and prosecutions in relation to 2007-2008 post-election violence in Kenya is considered positively by the UN Security Council.

H.E. Mr. Agshin Mehdiyev
Permanent Representative of the Republic of Azerbaijan to the UN
President of the Month of October 2013 of the Security Council of the United Nations
New York, USA

The security situation in Kenya is very complex. There are at play important dynamics and tensions of politics, peace, justice, and the rule of law, regional and national insecurity as well as a very acute sense of ethnicity that cannot be wished away or swept under the carpet.

The government of Kenya has undertaken a number of reforms in accordance with the National Accord and Reconciliation Process. The country has adopted a new Constitution that allows greater inclusion in the context of Kenya's diversity. Progress has been made in transforming its police and restoring the independence and credibility of its judiciary. Likewise, Kenya has put in place bold measures aimed at promoting national reconciliation and healing as well as peaceful resolutions of conflicts among local communities.

In this vein, positive measures have been implemented to ensure the return of refugees and the resettlement and compensation of the victims of the tragic events of 2007. In all these initiatives, both President Uhuru Kenyatta and Deputy President William Samoei Ruto, as well as all key stakeholders of the Kenyan society, are taking an active part and leadership role.

As you would observe and as demonstrated by the September 2013 terrorist attacks, Kenya is a frontline state in the fight against terrorism at regional, continental and international levels. In this regard, we wish to stress the threat that this menace poses to the region in particular and the continent in general; the proceedings initiated against the President and the Deputy President of Kenya will distract and prevent them from fulfilling their constitutional responsibilities, including oversight for national and regional security affairs.

In addition, Kenya plays an active and critical role in the stability and fight against terrorism at home and in the region, as demonstrated by the tragic event of the Westgate Shopping Mall in Nairobi in September 2013.

It will be recalled, Mr. President, that the President and Deputy President of Kenya have demonstrated full cooperation in the ICC process. In this regard, we wish to call upon you and the Members of UN Security Council to show the same level of cooperation by deferring the proceedings against the President and Deputy President of Kenya.

The measures put in place towards restoration of peace and national reconciliation have been spearheaded and championed by the President and his Deputy. Kenyans democratically elected their leaders in March 2013, and they expect that their leaders will discharge their constitutional responsibilities as elected executive leaders of the Republic of Kenya. This, if not considered, will be adversely impacted by the process at The Hague and thus, will undermine progress as well as threaten Kenya's peace and stability.

The new Constitution of Kenya formed the basis for overall restructuring of the governance structure and the implementation of a wide range of institutions, commissions and legislation reforms that domesticate the constitutional safeguards and human rights in order to strengthen the fight against impunity etc. The country also initiated a Truth, Justice and Reconciliation process, as part of the Accord signed in 2008, to address the cause and effects of historical injustices and gross violations of human rights that will contribute to national healing and reconciliation.

In light of the peace and security situation in Kenya and the Region, the African Union Member States would like to submit a formal request for a deferral of the proceedings initiated by the ICC against the President and Deputy President of the Republic of Kenya in order to provide them with the time required for the enhancement of the effort aimed at combatting terrorism and other forms of insecurity in the country and the region.

We wish to request that this letter be circulated to all members of the UN Security Council, as an official document be placed before the UN Security Council as an official request of the AU Member States to the UN Security Council; and further urge that this request for deferral be considered as a matter of urgency by 10th of November 2013.

In this regard, we also request the ICC to postpone the trial of President Uhuru Kenyatta and suspend the proceedings against Deputy President William Samoei Ruto until such time as the UN Security Council considers the request for deferral.

While renewing the expression of our sincere gratitude, please accept, Mr. President, the assurances of our highest consideration.
