Annex XV: Challenges to a contested report by the Global Initiative on Transnational Organised Crime

1. The Global Initiative on Transnational Organised Crime (GI-TOC) reported that four tons of hashish from the seized 17 tonnes had arrived in Tobruk, Libya by early May 2021, alleging that these four tonnes had been diverted from the seized volume and not been incinerated²⁵.
2. The Panel judges the conclusion that the four tonnes came from the 17 tonnes seized premature. Considering there were two shipments, it is very well possible that while the 17 tonnes that came in via Cotonou were seized, four tonnes from the earlier shipment via Lomé had indeed reached Libya.
3. The Niger anti-drug authority vehemently denied the NGO's allegation (see below). The authority also strongly denied the NGOs second allegation that in a context of political contestation, Zerma dominated security forces linked to the opposition had seized the hashish shipment belonging to Arab networks linked to newly elected President Bazoum, and a third insinuation perceived by the
