I have the honour to transmit herewith a document of the Security Council Committee pursuant to resolutions 1267 \(1999\), 1989 \(2011\) and 2253 \(2015\) concerning Islamic State in Iraq and the Levant (Da'esh), Al-Qaida and associated individuals, groups, undertakings and entities, presenting its position on the recommendations contained in the thirty-third report of the Analytical Support and Sanctions Monitoring Team (S/2024/92), which was submitted to the Committee in accordance with paragraph (a) of annex I to resolution 2610 \(2021\).

I would be grateful if the present letter and the position paper could be brought to the attention of the members of the Security Council and issued as a document of the Council.

(Signed) Vanessa Frazier
Chair

Security Council Committee pursuant to resolutions
1267 \(1999\), 1989 \(2011\) and 2253 \(2015\) concerning Islamic State in Iraq and the Levant (Da'esh), Al-Qaida and associated individuals, groups, undertakings and entities

Recommendations of the Analytical Support and Sanctions Monitoring Team contained in its thirty-third report (S/2024/92)

1. On 28 December 2023, the thirty-third report of the Analytical Support and Sanctions Monitoring Team was submitted to the Committee pursuant to paragraph (a) of annex I to Security Council resolution 2610 \(2021\). A table of recommendations based on the report was also circulated to the Committee on 2 January 2024, and the Committee deliberated on the table of recommendations on 22 January 2024. The Committee would like to express its gratitude to the Monitoring Team for the exemplary work undertaken in the fulfilment of its mandate.
2. Since December 2005, when it established the practice, the Committee has responded to each of the reports submitted by the Monitoring Team and has brought to the attention of the Security Council and the public the Committee's position on the recommendations contained in those reports.

1. The Monitoring Team continues to stress the importance of Member States sharing additional information to update list entries and narrative summaries without delay in accordance with their national legislation, and in support of annual review and data validation processes (S/2023/549 , para. 107).	121	The Committee agreed to write to Member States to stress the importance of Member States sharing additional information to update list entries and narrative summaries without delay in accordance with their national legislation, and in support of annual review and data validation processes.
2. The Monitoring Team proposes that the Committee mandate the Team, working together with the Secretariat and other sanctions committees' panels of experts if required, to study and assess the scope to update the standard form for the listing of individuals and entities under the ISIL (Da'esh) and Al-Qaida regime, and to consider what tools might support more effective list management. The Team should report its findings back to the Committee in due course for further consideration by the Committee.	122	The Committee agreed to mandate the Monitoring Team, working together with the Secretariat and other sanctions committees' panels of experts if required and on a case-by-case basis, to study and assess the scope to update the standard form for the listing of individuals and entities under the ISIL (Da'esh) and Al-Qaida regime, and to consider what tools might support more effective list management. The Team should report its findings back to the Committee in due course for further consideration by the Committee. Any further discussions as well as potential changes should be subject to consideration by the Committee and its approval by consensus.
