BURUNDI, NEPAL, SIERRA LEONE, SYRIA AND ZAMBIA: DRAFT RESOLUTION

The Security Council,

Having considered the question of Southern Rhodesia,

Reaffirming its resolutions 216 (1965) of 12 November 1965, 217 (1965) of 20 November 1965, 221 (1966) of 9 April 1966, 232 (1966) of 16 December 1966, 253 (1968) of 29 May 1968 and 277 (1970) of 18 March 1970,

Gravely concerned that certain States have not complied with the provisions of resolutions 232 (1966), 253 (1968) and 277 (1970), contrary to their obligations under Article 25 of the Charter of the United Nations,

Reaffirming the primary responsibility of the Government of the United Kingdom to enable the people of Southern Rhodesia to achieve self-determination and independence, and in particular their responsibility of bringing the illegal declaration of independence to an end,

Acting under Chapter VII of the United Nations Charter,

1. Calls upon the United Kingdom as the administering Power not to grant independence to Southern Rhodesia without the fulfilment of majority rule;
2. Decides that the present sanctions against Southern Rhodesia shall remain in force;
3. Urges all States to fully implement all Security Council resolutions pertaining to Southern Rhodesia in accordance with their obligations under Article 25 of the Charter, and deplores the attitude of those States which have persisted in giving moral, political and economic assistance to the illegal régime;
4. Further urges all States in furtherance of the objectives of the Security Council not to grant any form of recognition to the illegal régime in Southern Rhodesia;
5. Decides to remain actively seized of the matter.
