National Authority of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela for the prohibition of the development, production, stockpiling and use of chemical weapons

The Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, in implementation of the provisions of article VII (4) of the Convention on the Prohibition of the Development, Production, Stockpiling and Use of Chemical Weapons and on Their Destruction, has taken the necessary steps at the domestic level to prepare a draft decree on the establishment of a relevant National Authority, which will be chaired by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and composed of the Ministry of the Interior and Justice, the Ministry of Defence, the Ministry of Light Industry and Trade, the Ministry of Heavy Industry and Mining, the Ministry of Health, the Ministry of the Environment and Natural Resources and the Ministry of Science and Technology, as well as the Venezuelan Military Industries Corporation (CAVIM) and the Venezuelan Association of Chemical Industries (ASOQUIM).

The National Authority will have an Executive Secretariat and an Advisory Council, which will be composed of the Ministry of Energy and Oil, the Ministry of Finance, the Ministry of Agriculture and Land and any other representative of centralized or decentralized public agencies whose participation is deemed necessary by the National Authority.

The draft decree establishing the National Authority was approved by the Minister for Foreign Affairs, who decided to submit it to the President of the Republic. It is currently awaiting approval by the Head of State.

Once the National Authority has been established by means of a presidential decree, its members must immediately begin working to develop the legislative, penal and administrative measures necessary to ensure that the country complies fully with the provisions of the Chemical Weapons Convention.
