<sup>18</sup> Regulation (EC) No. 539/2001 applies neither to Ireland nor to the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

the execution of international sanctions — which repealed and replaced Act No. 126/2011 Coll. — under article I, sections 21-23, and in other relevant legal acts.

Competent authorities of the Slovak Republic for the execution of sanctions are stipulated by article I, section 4, of Act No. 289/2016 Coll. with reference to responsibilities and competences laid down pursuant to Act No. 575/2001 Coll. on the organization of Government activities and on the organization of central State administration.

Act No. 289/2016 Coll. of 11 October 2016 on the execution of international sanctions, provides a legal basis for the development of national rules on the implementation of international sanctions. It lays down provisions on the implementation of international sanctions, mostly in the following areas:

- Business and non-financial services
- Financial services and financial markets, money transfers, use of other means of payment, purchase and sale of securities and investment coupons
- Transport, postal services and electronic communications
- Technical infrastructure
- Scientific and technical relations, and cultural and sport relations
- Restrictions on the exercise of property rights
- Travel and issuance of visas.

As regards restrictions on admission (visa ban), Act No. 404/2011 on Residence of Aliens and Amendment and Supplementation of Certain Acts, together with Council Decision (CFSP) 2016/849 and Regulation (EC) No. 539/2001,<sup>18</sup> provides the basis for refusal of admission and denial of requests for a visa. Act No. 404/2011 governs the conditions for the entry and stay of foreign nationals in Slovakia. This Act regulates, inter alia, the scope of activities of public authorities in the area of visas, conditions for the entry of aliens into the territory of the Slovak Republic, conditions of residence, the issuance of documents for aliens, registration of persons and residence control, administrative expulsion and bans on entry, detention of third-country nationals and placement into facilities, and air transit of third-country nationals through the territory of the Slovak Republic.

Slovakia is a member of four multilateral export control regimes (Nuclear Suppliers Group, Zangger Committee, Australia Group and Wassenaar Arrangement) and applies the European Union legislation that is relevant to sensitive goods and technology that could contribute to the development of the nuclear or ballistic missile programmes of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea.

According to Act No. 392/2011 Coll. of 19 October 2011 on trading with defence industry products, as amended, an export authorization for the sale, transfer or export of arms and related materiel<sup>19</sup> to third countries and an authorization for the provision of brokering services related to military activities are required. The principal body responsible for the sale, transfer or export of arms and related materiel is the Ministry of Economy. Act No. 392/2011 Coll. and Council Common Position 2008/944/CFSP of 8 December 2008,<sup>20</sup> defining common rules governing control of exports of military technology and equipment, together with Council Decision (CFSP) 2016/849,<sup>21</sup> provide the basis for enforcement of the arms embargo against the Democratic People's Republic of Korea and the ban on related brokering services.

According to Act No. 39/2011 on dual-use items, as amended, an export authorization for the export, transfer, transit and brokering of dual-use items is required. The principal body responsible for the control of exports, transfer and brokering of dual-use items is the Ministry of Economy. Act No. 39/2011, together with Council Regulation (EC) No. 428/2009 of 5 May 2009, setting up a Community regime for the control of exports, transfer, brokering and transit of dual-use items, provide the basis for control of dual-use items relevant to Security Council resolutions concerning the Democratic People's Republic of Korea.
