The Italian Financial Security Committee has informed the Italian Foreign Ministry that so far no assets or financial resources belonging to persons or entities listed in accordance with Security Council resolution 2262 \(2016\) have been frozen in Italy.

The travel restrictions set out in the above-mentioned resolution are automatically implemented by Italy through the upload of the relevant list to the national Visa Information System. According to article 32 of Regulation (EC) No. 810/2009 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 13 July 2009 establishing a Community Code on Visas (Visa Code), a visa shall be refused, among other reasons, if the applicant “is considered to be a threat to public policy, internal security or public health ... in particular where an alert has been issued in Member States’ national databases”.

Measures to prevent the supply to embargoed countries, and thus to the Central African Republic, of all arms and related materiel are enshrined in Law No. 185/1990, as modified by Legislative Decree No. 105/2012. In particular, article 1(6)(c) forbids the supply of arms to countries upon which a mandatory United Nations embargo is imposed, which is the case for the Central African Republic.
