Letter dated 7 August 1998 from the Secretary-General addressed to the President of the Security Council (S/1998/760)

The President: The Security Council will now begin its consideration of the item on its agenda. The Council is meeting in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations.

Members of the Security Council have before them document S/1998/760, which contains the text of a letter dated 7 August 1998 from the Secretary-General addressed to the President of the Security Council regarding the nominations which have been received for judges of the Trial Chambers of the International Tribunal for Rwanda. In this connection, the members of the Council will note the information contained in the Secretary-General's letter.

Members of the Council also have before them the draft of a letter which I, as President of the Security Council, would propose to send to the Secretary-General in reply to the aforementioned letter, informing him of the decision by the Council to extend the deadline for nominations of judges of the Tribunal until 14 September 1998.

In the absence of objection, I shall assume that the Security Council agrees that I should send the letter as drafted to the Secretary-General.

It is so decided.

The reply will be issued as a document of the Council under the symbol S/1998/761.

The Security Council has thus concluded the present stage of its consideration of the item on its agenda.

The Council remains seized of the item.
