

At its 1987th meeting, on 8 February 1977, the Council decided to invite the representatives of Cuba, Mali, Senegal and Somalia to participate, without vote, in the discussion of the question.

Resolution 404 (1977)
of 8 February 1977

The Security Council,

Taking note of the letter dated 26 January 1977 from the Chargé d'Affaires, a.i., of the Permanent Mission of the People's Republic of Benin to the United Nations addressed to the President of the Security Council,⁶⁶

Having heard the statement of the Permanent Representative of the People's Republic of Benin,⁶⁷

Bearing in mind that all Member States must refrain in their international relations from the threat or use of force against the territorial integrity or political independence of any State, or in any other manner inconsistent with the purposes of the United Nations,

1. Affirms that the territorial integrity and political independence of the People's Republic of Benin must be respected;
2. Decides to send a Special Mission composed of three members of the Security Council to the People's Republic of Benin in order to investigate the events of 16 January 1977 at Cotonou and report not later than the end of February 1977;
3. Decides that the members of the Special Mission will be appointed after consultations between the President and the members of the Security Council;
4. Requests the Secretary-General to provide the Special Mission with the necessary assistance;
5. Decides to remain seized of the question.

Adopted at the 1987th meeting by consensus.

Decisions

In a note dated 10 February 1977,⁶⁸ the President of the Security Council stated, with reference to paragraph 3 of resolution 404 (1977), that, following consultations with the members of the Council, agreement had been reached that the Special Mission to the People's Republic of Benin would be composed of India, the Libyan Arab Republic and Panama and that Ambassador Jorge Enrique Illueca of Panama would serve as Chairman of the Special Mission.
