Thirty-third Meeting

New York, 12–16 June 2023

Item 13 of the provisional agenda*

Election of seven members of the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea

Election of seven members of the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea

Note by the Registrar of the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea on the election procedures

I. Election of seven members of the Tribunal

1. In accordance with article 5, paragraph 1, of the Statute of the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea (annex VI to the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea), the members of the Tribunal shall be elected for nine years and may be re-elected, provided, however, that of the members elected at the first election, the terms of seven members shall expire at the end of three years and the terms of seven more members shall expire at the end of six years.

2. The first election of members of the Tribunal by the Meeting of States Parties was held on 1 August 1996. The seven members whose terms expired at the end of three years and the seven members whose terms expired at the end of six years were determined by the Meeting of States Parties in accordance with the procedure set out at its fifth meeting, in 1996 (SPLOS/L.3/Rev.1), consistent with article 5, paragraph 2, of the Statute. Triennial elections of seven members of the Tribunal were held in 1999, 2002, 2005, 2008, 2011, 2014, 2017 and 2020.

3. The triennial elections held from 1999 to 2008 were conducted in accordance with the procedure determined at the fifth Meeting of States Parties. The elections held in 2011, 2014, 2017 and 2020 were conducted in accordance with the procedure determined at the nineteenth Meeting of States Parties (SPLOS/201).

4. The members currently serving, along with their nationalities and terms of office, are listed in the annex to the present note.

5. Pursuant to article 2 of the Rules of the Tribunal, the term of office of members elected at a triennial election begins to run from 1 October following the date of the election.

* SPLOS/33/L.1.

6. The election to fill the places of seven members whose terms of office expire on 30 September 2023 will be held during the thirty-third Meeting of States Parties.

7. A list of all persons nominated, in alphabetical order, with an indication of the States parties that have nominated them, prepared by the Registrar in accordance with article 4, paragraph 2, of the Statute, is being circulated to States parties (SPLOS/33/5), as are the curricula vitae of the nominated candidates (SPLOS/33/6).

II. Procedure

8. Pursuant to article 4, paragraph 4, of the Statute, the members of the Tribunal shall be elected by secret ballot at a meeting of States parties convened by a procedure agreed to by the States parties. Two thirds of the States parties shall constitute a quorum at such meeting. Article 4, paragraph 4, of the Statute further stipulates that the persons elected to the Tribunal shall be those nominees who obtain the largest number of votes and a two-thirds majority of the States parties present and voting, provided that such majority includes a majority of the States parties.

9. Articles 2 and 3 of the Statute provide as follows:

Article 2

Composition

1. The Tribunal shall be composed of a body of 21 independent members, elected from among persons enjoying the highest reputation for fairness and integrity and of recognized competence in the field of the law of the sea.

2. In the Tribunal as a whole the representation of the principal legal systems of the world and equitable geographical distribution shall be assured.

Article 3

Membership

1. No two members of the Tribunal may be nationals of the same State. A person who for the purposes of membership in the Tribunal could be regarded as a national of more than one State shall be deemed to be a national of the one in which he ordinarily exercises civil and political rights.

2. There shall be no fewer than three members from each geographical group as established by the General Assembly of the United Nations.

10. In 2009, the nineteenth Meeting of States Parties approved the arrangement for the allocation of seats on the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea and the Commission on the Limits of the Continental Shelf (SPLOS/201) (see SPLOS/203, paras. 96–102). According to the arrangement:

“1. The allocation of seats of the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea shall be in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Convention, providing that no regional group will have fewer than three seats. From the next election, the Tribunal shall have the following composition:

(a) Five members of the Tribunal shall be from the Group of African States;

(b) Five members of the Tribunal shall be from the Group of Asian States;

(c) Three members of the Tribunal shall be from the Group of Eastern European States;

(d) Four members of the Tribunal shall be from the Group of Latin American and Caribbean States;

(e) Three members of the Tribunal shall be from the Group of Western European and other States;

(f) The remaining one member of the Tribunal shall be elected from among the Group of African States, the Group of Asian States and the Group of Western European and other States.

3. The above arrangements do not prejudice or affect future arrangements for elections.”

11. Information on the conduct of the elections is contained in the note by the Secretary-General on the election of seven members of the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea (SPLOS/33/8).
