II Financial performance report on the programme budget for 2022

Recalling its resolutions 72/266 A of 24 December 2017, 76/245, 76/246 A, 76/247 A to C and 76/248 of 24 December 2021, 76/246 B of 13 April 2022, 76/271 of 29 June 2022 and section VII of its resolution 77/263 A of 30 December 2022,

Having considered the financial performance report on the programme budget for 2022³ and the related report of the Advisory Committee,⁴

1. Takes note of the report of the Secretary-General;
2. Endorses the conclusions and recommendations contained in the report of the Advisory Committee;
3. Notes the performance report for 2022 that provides a view of the implementation of the 2022 budget, and requests the Secretary-General to continue its further improvement;
4. Recalls paragraph 13 of the report of the Advisory Committee, notes the continuous increase of the balance of the cost recovery fund, reiterates the necessity of a residual balance to minimize the risk of a cost recovery fund liability, requests the Secretary-General to provide an update during the second part of the resumed seventy-eighth session and to continue the review of the fund to identify credits for return to Member States, to indicate the amount of the accumulated balance that is spendable, the total revenue and expenditure of cost-recovery activities as well as net income and the average percentage of revenue for transactions related to cost-recovery operations, while predicting growth trends and ensuring that the balance is kept at appropriate levels to respond to long-term staff liabilities and other operating costs required for the provision of services, and also requests the Secretary-General to further inform on this matter in the financial performance report for 2023;
5. Takes note of the final expenditure in 2022 in the amount of 3,236,269,600 United States dollars and the actual income in 2022 in the amount of 322,169,000 dollars;
6. Approves the return of 113,645,900 dollars as a credit against assessments to Member States for 2024, resulting from:
 - (a) Underexpenditure in the amount of 21,485,800 dollars under the expenditure sections of the programme budget for 2022;
 - (b) The cancellation of commitments pertaining to prior budget periods in the amount of 47,873,700 dollars, as reported in volume I of the financial reports and audited financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2022;
 - (c) A higher collected income in the amount of 25,634,500 dollars, which reflects the difference between the approved income estimates of 296,534,500 dollars and the actual income of 322,169,000 dollars;
 - (d) An amount of 18,651,900 dollars approved as a commitment authority for the United Nations Support Mission in Libya, for which an assessment had been approved by the General Assembly in its resolution 76/246 B;

Request for a subvention to the Residual Special Court for Sierra Leone

Recalling its resolution 58/284 of 8 April 2004, section VII of its resolution 59/276 of 23 December 2004, section II of its resolution 59/294 of 22 June 2005, section XII of its resolution 65/259, section IX of its resolution 66/247 of 24 December 2011, section I of its resolution 67/246, section VII of its resolution 70/248 A, section III of its resolution 71/272 A, section VIII of its resolution 72/262 A, section III of its resolution 73/279 A, section VI of its resolution 74/263, section XVI of its resolution 75/253 A, section XI of its resolution 76/246 A and section III of its resolution 77/263 A,

Having considered the report of the Secretary-General on the use of the commitment authority and request for a subvention to the Residual Special Court for Sierra Leone⁵ and the related report of the Advisory Committee,⁶

1. Takes note of the report of the Secretary-General;
2. Endorses the conclusions and recommendations contained in the report of the Advisory Committee;
3. Reaffirms the high priority accorded to the work of the Residual Special Court for Sierra Leone;
4. Welcomes the support provided by several countries, including voluntary contributions, pro bono annual audit of the Residual Special Court and in-kind support in enforcing sentences, relocating witnesses, housing the archives of the Residual Special Court as well as prisoners of the Court, and hosting fundraising activities;
5. Also welcomes the continued in-kind multiform support provided by the Government of Sierra Leone to the Residual Special Court, including the provision of rent-free office space and other services at no cost;
6. Emphasizes that the subvention from the regular budget is a bridging financing mechanism to supplement insufficient voluntary contributions, and encourages all Member States to provide voluntary support for the Residual Special Court;
7. Requests the Secretary-General to continue his efforts to seek voluntary contributions, including through broadening the donor base and holding regular consultations with the key stakeholders, as well as to implement innovative fundraising approaches, and to report thereon to the General Assembly at the main part of its seventy-ninth session;
8. Recalls paragraph 29 of the report of the Advisory Committee, and requests the Secretary-General to redouble his efforts to seek alternative and sustainable financing arrangements for the Residual Special Court and to report thereon to the General Assembly at the main part of its seventy-ninth session;
9. Appreciates the efforts made by the Residual Special Court on cost-efficiency measures, encourages the Court to continue its efforts aimed at identifying additional cost-efficiency and the relevant cost-savings measures to be applied in view of the persistent funding challenges, and requests the Secretary-General to report thereon in the context of his next report;
10. Welcomes the efforts to date of the Residual Special Court to digitize judicial records, notes that full digitization of all records remains incomplete, and encourages the Court to continue to work towards the completion of the full digitization of archives within the existing resources;

⁵ A/78/363.

⁶ A/78/7/Add.12.

11. Authorizes the Secretary-General to enter into commitments in an amount not to exceed 2,820,000 dollars to supplement the voluntary financial resources of the Residual Special Court for the period from 1 January to 31 December 2024, and requests the Secretary-General to report on the use of the commitment authority in the context of his next report;

IV

Request for a subvention to the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia

Recalling section I of its resolution 68/247 B of 9 April 2014, section I of its resolution 69/274 A, section IV of its resolution 70/248 A, section II of its resolution 71/272 A, section IX of its resolution 72/262 A, section IV of its resolution 73/279 A, section V of its resolution 74/263, section XX of its resolution 75/253 A, section XII of its resolution 76/246 A and section IV of its resolution 77/263 A,

Having considered the report of the Secretary-General on the use of the commitment authority and request for a subvention to the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia⁷ and the related report of the Advisory Committee,⁸

1. Takes note of the report of the Secretary-General;
2. Endorses the conclusions and recommendations contained in the report of the Advisory Committee, subject to the provisions of the present resolution;
3. Reaffirms the high priority accorded to the work of the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia;
4. Notes with appreciation the sustained contributions of the Government of Cambodia, as the host country, for the Extraordinary Chambers;
5. Encourages the Extraordinary Chambers to continue to adopt appropriate measures for achieving operational savings and efficiencies while properly carrying out the residual functions in a transparent, accountable, cost-effective and expeditious manner, with a view to a timely completion of the residual phase;
6. Welcomes the completion of judicial proceedings in all cases before the Extraordinary Chambers;
7. Recalls paragraph 14 of the report of the Advisory Committee, and stresses the importance of maintaining and preserving the records of the Extraordinary Chambers in the three official languages of the Chambers and making those documents easily accessible for the general public;
8. Also recalls paragraph 16 of the report of the Advisory Committee, and reaffirms that expenses of the international component of the Extraordinary Chambers should be borne by voluntary contributions, further encourages all Member States to provide continuing and additional voluntary support for the Extraordinary Chambers, and requests the Secretary-General to continue his intensive efforts to obtain additional voluntary contributions, including by broadening the donor base;
9. Encourages all Member States to provide continuing and additional voluntary support for both the international and national components of the

Having considered the report of the Secretary-General⁴⁸ and the related report of the Advisory Committee,⁴⁹

1. Takes note of the report of the Secretary-General;
2. Endorses the conclusions and recommendations contained in the report of the Advisory Committee;
3. Expresses its gratitude to the Government of Kenya for its continued support for the United Nations Office at Nairobi, and trusts that the Secretary-General will continue to engage with the host country to ensure the success of the project;
4. Acknowledges the need to address the deteriorating conditions and limited capacity of the conference services facilities at the United Nations Office at Nairobi and the urgent need to implement the project in a timely manner to address the situation, increase its utilization and to bring the Office to a standard consistent with other United Nations headquarters;
5. Reiterates its request to the Secretary-General to remain proactive in seeking both voluntary and in-kind contributions from Member States, in full compliance with all relevant rules and regulations of the Organization, and to provide detailed information on the matter in the context of his next progress report;
6. Requests the Secretary-General to incorporate the envisaged renewable energy efficiency measures, wastewater treatment, solid waste management and water management into the project design;
7. Emphasizes that the utilization and management of the conference facilities of the United Nations Office at Nairobi should be in line with the applicable criteria for the use of United Nations premises, and encourages the use of best practices and lessons learned from other United Nations conference facilities;
8. Recalls its resolution 77/263 A, reiterates the important role of the United Nations Office at Nairobi as a duty station of the United Nations, requests the Secretary-General to continue to ensure compliance with the general principle established in the headquarters rule, encourages the Secretary-General to continue the efforts being made by the United Nations Office at Nairobi to attract more United Nations intergovernmental meetings to its facilities, as appropriate, and emphasizes that the intergovernmental meetings shall be given priority in using the facilities to further increase the utilization of the conference facilities;
9. Notes that the commencement of the design phase allows for voluntary contributions and other forms of support to be sought, which may potentially contribute to offsetting the overall cost of the project;
10. Decides to approve the scope of option B for the conference facilities capital project at the United Nations Office at Nairobi, and requests the Secretary-General to ensure that any change that affects the scope of the project is presented for the consideration and decision of the General Assembly;
11. Recalls section VII of its resolution 66/247, and requests the Secretary-General to ensure the implementation of this project and the finalization of the other ongoing major capital project in a timely manner;
12. Decides to approve the recommended implementation strategy and schedule for the project;

13. Recalls paragraph 26 of the report of the Advisory Committee, and requests the Secretary-General to ensure the implementation of the conference services facilities project in a timely manner;
14. Also recalls paragraph 27 of the report of the Advisory Committee, and further encourages the Secretary-General to continue to identify potential linkages and synergies between this project and the project for the replacement of office blocks A to J;
15. Further recalls paragraph 29 of the report of the Advisory Committee, and encourages the Secretary-General to intensify his efforts to incorporate local knowledge, technology, capacity and the use of locally sourced and manufactured materials, as well as local labour and expertise, throughout the implementation of the construction project, and looks forward to updates thereon in future progress reports;
16. Requests the Secretary-General to ensure that all activities promote cost-efficiency and transparency, are implemented within existing resources and in accordance with the United Nations legislative framework, including the Financial Regulations and Rules, while maintaining full accountability to the General Assembly;
17. Stresses the importance of governance, effective oversight, transparency and accountability in the management of the project to ensure that the objectives of the project are achieved within the approved budget and time schedule;
18. Requests the Secretary-General to explore possible cost-sharing arrangements that may be implemented by the United Nations Office at Nairobi conference facilities and to report thereon in the next progress report;
19. Also requests the Secretary-General to continue to proactively monitor and mitigate all project risks, to take all measures necessary to ensure the delivery of the project within the scope, budget and timeline approved by the General Assembly and to include in his next progress report an update on risk management and related mitigation measures;
20. Further requests the Secretary-General, through the Global Asset Management Policy Service, to take into account lessons learned and best practices from similar United Nations construction and renovation projects in the planning, design and implementation of the proposed conference services facilities;
21. Recalls its resolution 77/263 A, and requests the Secretary-General to continue to ensure conformity with relevant building codes and standards, technology and workplace safety, as well as best practices for persons with disabilities, in the design, construction and renovation of the United Nations Office at Nairobi facilities;
22. Affirms that the proposed dedicated project management team for the United Nations Office at Nairobi conference services facilities will be a time-limited and mission-specific endeavour and that the team should therefore not be a permanent addition to the existing organisational structure;
23. Recalls paragraph 20 of section VIII of its resolution 77/263 A, in which it established a multi-year construction-in-progress account for the duration of the project;
24. Stresses that any increase to the maximum overall budget must be approved by the General Assembly before entering into corresponding financial commitments;
25. Notes with concern that the projected costs for the design consultancy firm have increased by 58.1 per cent since the previous report of the Secretary-General, and stresses the need to achieve the full scope and objectives of the project within the approved overall maximum budget;

26. Notes that changes in escalation rates constitute direct changes in the overall project resource requirements, and stresses that such changes should be accurately reflected in the report of the Secretary-General to the General Assembly;

27. Decides to approve the maximum overall cost of the project in the amount of 265,659,200 dollars;

28. Appropriates an amount of 11,928,200 dollars for the project in 2024, comprising 9,837,000 dollars under section 33, Construction, alteration, improvement and major maintenance, and 2,091,200 dollars under section 29D, Administration, Nairobi, of the proposed programme budget for 2024;
